ANCESTOR'S SERVICE.

My ancestor's services in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

Copied from my great grandfather's application for pension on account of his services as a soldier of the Revolution, which application is now on file in the United States Pension Office, Washington, DC

State of New York }
Rensselaer Co. } SS

On this 29 day of November A.D. 1841 personally appeared before me, Henry W. Masten, one of the Justices of the Justices Court of the city of Troy (being a court of record) Elisha Eldridge a resident of Lansingburg N.Y. aged 85 years, who, being duly sworn according to law doth, on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Pension Act of Congress passed July 7, 1832. That in 1774 I resided in the town of Brainford, Ct from which place I went to Groton, Mass and enlisted as a Minute Man under Captain Duly in Colonel Ward's Regiment. As soon as the alarm of Lexington reached the town of Groton we immediately took up the line of march and arrived at Lexington just as the British commenced the retreat to Boston. About this time my enlistment expired and I reenlisted in the same company for three months. Went to Cambridge and at the battle of Bunker Hill our Regiment was stationed on

APR 25 1975

Prospect Hill. On expiration of three months service I re enlisted in Capt Aaron Morse's Company of Minute Men and went to Roxbury where we built a fort and took up our winter quarters — Was here promoted to Orderly Sargeant.

At the evacuation of the city of Boston our company was on Dorchester Heights and received the broad sides of the British ships as they passed out of the harbor, several of our men being cut down. Soon after this engagement my enlistment expired and upon being discharged I went home to Branford. I again enlisted under Capt Sam. Barker, Col. Russell's Regiment at Branford, Conn. I served only a short part of this enlistment, obtaining as a substitute, Asha Bull, when I was discharged. (Signed) Elisha Eldrig

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

Attested by Wm Hagen, Clerk of Court. (Court Seal)

An affidavit of Alfred Seaman accompanying the claim says he was Capt. of a Company of State Militia at Lansingburg N.Y. in 1841 and burie the said Elisha Eldridge with "Military honors" as a Revolutionary Soldier.

National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution

Mrs. Wakelee Rawson Smith, President General

THE DAR IN ACTION

The National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution was founded October 11, 1890, for historic, educational, and patriotic service: (1) to perpetuate the memory and spirit of the men and women who achieved American Independence; (2) to carry out the injunction of Washington in his farewell address to the American people, "to promote, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge"; (3) to cherish, maintain, and extend the institutions of American freedom, to foster true patriotism and love of country, and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty.

The Society was incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia on June 4, 1891. A charter was granted to the Society by the United States Congress and signed by President Grover Cleveland in 1896. This charter stipulates that the Society report annually to the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, who in turn reports to the Congress.

The headquarters buildings of the Daughters of the American Revolution occupy an entire city block a short distance from the White House. The three handsome NSDAR structures are Memorial Continental Hall (1905) and Constitution Hall (1929) connected by the Administration Building (1923, enlarged 1950).

Memorial Continental Hall, on Seventeenth Street, was for many years the Society's only building. It was designated as a Registered National Historic Landmark in 1973 because of its significance in United States history as the meeting place for representatives from nine nations at the Conference on Limitation of Armament in 1921-22. Today the historic auditorium is the DAR Library.

This outstanding genealogical library has a collection of approximately 60,000 books and pamphlets, and over 30,000 manuscripts. Some of the manuscript material is available in no other library. Unpublished, non-copyrighted records are on microfilm. The library is open from 9 to 4 Monday through Friday, and non-members pay a nominal fee. It is closed to the public during April.

Also in Memorial Continental Hall are 28 Period Rooms that trace the development of life in America. They are maintained by the individual State organizations under the direction of the Curator General, who supervises the Revolutionary period museum as well. There are some 50,000 items in the Period Rooms and the DAR Museum.

The DAR Museum, accredited by the American Association of Museums in 1973, is in the Administration Building, as are two other educational facilities: (1) the Americana Collection of several thousand original historical documents pertaining to the American Revolutionary era, under the supervision of the Historian General, and (2) the Historical Research Library. They are open to the public and guide service is provided free to the Period Rooms, the DAR Museum, and the Americana Collection.

The Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine, the official publication of the Society since 1892, appears ten times a year. It contains articles relating to lesser-known aspects of our history which a profit-making magazine could not publish. Copies are given to public libraries, and to school and university libraries.

The Society's third building, Constitution Hall, is on Eighteenth Street. Its auditorium, the largest in Washington, seats 3,811. In the 1933-34 season, the National Geographic Society initiated a series of annual lectures in Constitution Hall, and they have been yearly events ever since. In 1965, these lectures were increased from two to three weekly. The eighteen-week season begins in October and continues to the first week in April, with a short break between the fall and winter series. Because of the Hall's fine accoustics, it has been engaged by the National Symphony Orchestra and London Records, Inc. (The Decca Record Company, Ltd.), for all 1974 and 1975 recording sessions. The Hall is available for concerts, graduation ceremonies, and other similar and suitable events.

The NSDAR built Constitution Hall for its Continental Congress, held annually during the week of April 19th, the anniversary of the Battle of Lexington. Over half a million members have joined the DAR since the Society was founded. Today there are more than 196,000 members, many between the ages of 18 and 35, in nearly 3,000 Chapters in the fifty states, the District of Columbia, England, France, and Mexico.

The President General and 11 Executive Officers, elected for three-year terms, direct the business affairs of the Society. These officers, together with 21 Vice Presidents General (7 elected at large annually for a three-year term) and the State Regents, comprise the National Board of Management. The regular meetings of the Board are held four times yearly: February, twice in April, and October—with special meetings in June and December.

The Society functions through 24 National and a number of Special and Standing committees to further its threefold objectives of historic preservation, promotion of education, and patriotic endeavor. The comprehensive programs of the National committees afford great opportunity for service to community, state, and Nation.

The Honor Roll Committee, through its national awards program, is an incentive for promoting the objectives of the NSDAR.

The Conservation Committee (1909), stresses preservation of natural resources and participates in beautification projects. More than a million and a half trees, shrubs, and bulbs are planted in public parks and roadsides each year. In 1971, an 18th century rose garden, dedicated to the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, was the Society's gift to Independence National Historical Park, Philadelphia. During the 1971-74 Administration, the President General's project was the furnishing of two rooms at Independence Hall.

The Society pioneered in the field of preservation. Through the efforts of its membership, countless historic places are preserved, houses restored, and graves of Revolutionary soldiers located and marked.

The American Heritage Committee aids and encourages preservation of arts, crafts, drama, music, and literature through programs, exhibits, and tours. This committee, like the majority of the Society's committees, was established not to benefit the DAR and its members but to benefit the Nation and its citizens. This is true even of the Genealogical Records Committee, which performs a valuable service in securing and indexing hitherto unpublished genealogical material. The Lineage Research Committee provides potential members with free service in connection with their application papers. A Lineage Research Kit containing instructive material is available. The DAR Patriot Index containing 771 pages of genealogical data on 105,500 Patriots, whose descendants have joined the DAR on their accepted service, was published in 1966. A first supplement, containing data on 1,220 additional Patriots, was published in 1969, and a second supplement, with material on 3,390 newly identified Patriot ancestors, was added in 1973.

As a service to the Nation, DAR members have contributed hundreds of thousands of dollars to initiate and support varied projects to promote good citizenship. An especially noteworthy endeavor is in the field of education. The DAR owns, maintains, and operates two schools in the Appalachian area: Tamassee in South Carolina (1919) and Kate Duncan Smith in Alabama (1924). Both are accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Tamassee DAR School at Tamassee, S.C., is a boarding and day school for boys and girls in the elementary grades, with 30 buildings on 1,000 acres. Kate Duncan Smith DAR School at Grant, Ala., a day school for elementary and high school students, has 33 buildings on its 240-acre campus. Approximately one million dollars has been invested in each school. The NSDAR contributes $10,000 to each annually; additional contributions to them total thousands of dollars.

DAR members also contribute to five other schools, mainly in the form of scholarships, clothing, and gifts. Approximately $30,000 is contributed to these each year.

In addition, the American Indians Committee was established to help American Indians help themselves, by furnishing financial and other aids to two Indian schools: St. Mary's Episcopal School for Indian Girls, in Springfield, South Dakota; and Bacone Indian College, in Bacone, Oklahoma. The NSDAR contributed more than $72,000 to this Committee in 1973-74.

The National Society, Children of the American Revolution, about 13,500 children and young adults, was founded by the DAR in 1895. The Children of the American Revolution Committee promotes the work of this patriotic youth organization, whose members train in leadership and patriotism.

Citizenship training and study of American Government are promoted through the Americanism and DAR Manual for Citizenship Committee. Since 1921, almost ten million copies of the DAR Manual for Citizenship have been given to foreign-born who wish to become American citizens. The DAR founded the Americanization School in 1913 to assist foreign students in the Nation's Capital. Although the Americanization School was incorporated into the District of Columbia school system in 1919, the NSDAR continues its interest in it.

The NSDAR expends around $100,000 annually through its Student Loan and Scholarship Committee. Scholarships ranging from $100 to $400 a year are awarded to students for medical training, occupational therapy, and nursing. The Society grants an $8,000 American History Scholarship, $2,000 per year for four years, to a qualifying senior in a high school graduating class.

The DAR Good Citizens Committee, whose aim is to recognize and promote the qualities of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism among high school girls in accredited private and public schools, awards a $1,000 National Scholarship to the winning high school senior who manifests these qualities. This scholarship is applied toward her tuition at the college of her choice. The State winner is awarded a $100 Savings Bond by the NSDAR.

The objectives of the Junior American Citizens Committee are to instill good citizenship in children from elementary through high school age by teaching loyalty to the United States of America and by giving practical ideas for service to the home, community, school, and country. DAR Chapters carry the responsibility for organizing JAC Clubs at the community level. They can be organized in parochial, private, or public schools, in settlement houses, orphanages, or community centers. Membership is free and open to all boys and girls, regardless of race or creed.

Documented material which stresses the moral, spiritual, and Constitutional values on which our freedoms are based is published by the National Defense Committee for distribution among members and others. Through DAR Chapters, this Committee distributes Good Citizenship Medals to boys and girls in the graduating classes of elementary, junior, and senior high schools who possess the five important qualities of honor, service, courage, leadership, and patriotism. (These medals are not to be confused with the DAR Good Citizens awards, which are given to senior high school girls only.) Under this Committee, ROTC Medals are presented to graduating cadets of outstanding ability and achievement in secondary schools, junior colleges, and universities.

For more than half a century, the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution has been presenting an annual award averaging $100 to each of the United States Service Academies.

The first Resolution passed by the Society requested all American citizens to rise and stand when "The Star-Spangled Banner" is sung or played. The Flag of the United States of America Committee gives thousands of United States Flags and Flag Codes (many in Braille), and Flag Code Posters each year to schools, youth groups, naturalized citizens, veterans hospitals, etc.

Thousands of American History Certificates and Medals are awarded by the DAR each year to children in the 5th through 8th grades, to promote knowledge of American history. The NSDAR initiated American History Month (February) and Constitution Week (September 17-23).

The Society has always done its part in war emergencies. Although newly organized at the time of the Spanish-American War, the NSDAR recruited nurses for hospital service. These nurses became the nucleus of today's Army Nurse Corps. The NSDAR annually presents the Dr. Anita Newcomb McGee Award to the Army Nurse of the Year, selected by the Army Medical Service, thus perpetuating the significant contribution of the Society in establishing the Army Nurse Corps.

The Motion Picture Committee covers such activities as cooperation with other organizations in community work in the endeavor to secure better films and television programs.

The Program Committee aids Chapters to further NSDAR objectives through selected slides, scripts, and papers. In observance of the Bicentennial of the U.S.A., suitable new material is being made available.

The DAR Speakers Staff was established to stimulate greater interest and understanding at Chapter level, and to provide speakers before civic groups relative to the Society's objectives.

The Transportation Committee has two distinct functions, traffic safety and transportation of members to meetings and on historic pilgrimages.

The DAR Service for Veteran-Patients Committee was authorized in April 1968 as a patriotic endeavor on the local level for volunteer service by DAR members. The NSDAR is now on the National Veterans Administration Volunteer Service Advisory Board with one representative and two deputy representatives.

The Public Relations Committee, through press, radio, and television, promotes the objectives of the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution.

ELWOOD, INDIANA, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1910

GEORGE HAYNES, GOOD CITIZEN, GONE TO REWARD

Called from Earth Last Evening After Weeks of Suffering Etc.

PROMINENT BUSINESS MAN

Honored by Every One; Aided City's Advancement; Funeral Thursday

George E. Haynes, good citizen, progressive business man and prominent politician has gone to his reward, having been claimed by death last evening a few minutes after 7 o'clock, at his late residence , 1408 South E. street.

Mr. Haynes had been seriously ill for several weeks and his death was not unexpected, he having been confined to his home for several weeks with a complication of diseases that baffled his physicians , and for some time the end has been momentarily expected.

Perhaps no man in the city of Elwood was better known or had a greater circle of friends than George E Haynes.

He had resided in this city for almost twenty years, and had been engaged in the real estate and insurance business for the past fifteen years, having built up a lucrative clientel, when he sold out to his brother-in-law, on account of failing health and went to St. Louis, with the hopes of building up his physical being. Later he was lured to Gary by the rapid growth of the steel city, but returned to this city a few years ago where he again entered the real estate and insurance business, which he conducted up until he was compelled to retire on account of illness.

Mr. Haynes was one o fthe foremost politicians of his party in Elwood and his loss will be keenly felt in this respect, his advice being sought in matters of this kind, and he was looked upon as among the most conservative men in the city by his political friends.

He was a candidate for mayor at the last city election, and was defeated only by the hard work of his opponent.

In advancing the city and its business interest Mr. Haynes was ever ready to lend a hand while there was few projects put on foot that did not have the approval of George Haynes, and he was for Elwood first, last and all the time.

He was a prominent member of the Elwood Commercial club and when the Elwood Business Men Property Holder's Association was formed, he was one of the organization's most staunchest supporters, aiding the association in carrying on its work with zeal.

The deceased leaves to mourn the loss of a loving husband and kind parent, a wife, four sons and one daughter.

No arrangements for the funeral had been made this afternoon but will probably occur at the M. E. church of which the deceased was a member on Thursday, and interment following in the city cemetery. . .

Mr. Haynes was a Mason, Knights of Pythias, Independent Order of Foresters, and perhaps some other orders and the funeral will likely be in charge of the Masons, with the other orders of whom the deceased was a member, will attend in bodies.

Mr. Pierre E. Haynes,
527 Postal Station Bldg.,
Indianapolis, Indiana.

Dear Sir:

Your name was first brought to writer's attention when visiting Louie Settlemyre some years back, she having shown me your 1932 letter to her in which you outline the Nicholson Family ancestry.

Your present address was procured per a letter of Louie Settlemyre addressed to Myrtle Brattain Lyon of Pendleton, Ind., a descendant of Lydia Nicholson White; in Mrs. Settlemyre's letter she mentioned that you recently called at her home in her absence and made the suggestion that since you were now residing in Indianapolis, that you might accept an invitation and attend the annual reunion of the descendants of Wesley and Lydia Nicholson White to be held on Sept. 21, 1941 in the Scout Cabin at Forest Park near Noblesville, Indiana.

Certainly your study of family record would be of interest to the older as well as the younger persons present, so you are especially invited to make an address or lead a discussion on the same at the business meeting held in the afternoon. In my personal search for data relating to the final resting place of Sarah Elizabeth Cook, supposedly the mother of Lydia Nicholson White (above), I regret to volunteer that same is unfinished. I remember that Mrs. Settlemyre stated that you had had some difficulty in possibly following Lydia's mother after they left the vicinity of Lebanon, Ohio and came to Indiana in about 1820.

Finally, may I explain that I am writing for and on behalf of the Sec'y.-Treas., Mrs. Maurice Brattain, of said White Reunion and assure you that a written acceptance of this invite would be greatly appreciated; at any rate, if you find that impossible, may we have a written word from you, for the coming reunion.

I am,

Respectfully yours,

Kenneth G. Brattain

Serial No. 26

Mary Osborn, Child Welfare Worker, Dies

A lifetime interest in the welfare of children and in educating women for responsible parenthood dominated the activities of Mrs. Mary Belle Haynes Osborn, 56, who died yesterday in Methodist Hospital. Her home was at 5735 N. Pennsylvania.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Osborn taught school in Brightwood, and her interest in child education led her to pioneer in the movement to teach public school subjects to children confined by long illnesses to General Hospital, James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for Children and Robert W. Long Hospital.

Mrs. Osborn was also a member of the board of the Maternal Health League, which is part of the National Planned Parenthood Association. As such she had charge of scheduling volunteers for interviews and did volunteer work herself.

Born at Kirklin, Mrs. Osborn lived in Indianapolis 36 years. She was a graduate of Elwood High School and Butler University.

She was also a member of Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, and Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority at Butler University, and was active in Alpha Iota Latereian Society.

Funeral services will be at 3 p.m. tomorrow in Shirley Brothers Central Chapel. Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery. Dr. Roy Ewing Vale, pastor of Tabernacle Church, will officiated.

Survivors are the husband, Frank V. Osborn, vice-president of Mouldings Inc.; two daughters, Mrs. Walter L. Shirley Jr., Indianapolis, and Mrs. Charles R. Hoffman, Anderson; two brothers, Parke G. Haynes, Washington, D.C., and Herman P. Haynes, Pasadena, Cal., and one grandchild.

Dear Geoffrey,

You don't know me, but I am a cousin. I have been in touch with Elliott Haynes, Daphne Miller and Haynes Miller in the last few months; and Haynes gave me your address. I am in the process of putting together a Haynes/Eldridge family genealogy. I have an enormous amount of material inherited from an uncle to build on; but had very little on the Edgar Allen Poe branch, a computer print-out of which I have enclosed. What information I have about you, Haynes M. gave me.

I would very much appreciate it if you would check the information I have to be sure it is correct and also supply any missing information. And someday I hope I'll have a nicely bound family history for all of us to keep and pass on to our descendants!

I've enclosed a stamped, self-addressed envelope just to expedite things. Below is a simple chart showing our relationship. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Marian S.

Dear Marian:

Thanks for your letter, which was surely a surprise! Your genealogy is fascinating--for me especially, since I've often been asked the origin of my first name!

I have just returned from a visit with my parents in Florida; I found that you have also written to my mother. She says she will write you with as much detail about her father Eldridge as she can find. I'll try to fill in what I can about the rest of our part of the family.

I have occasionally asked Elliott for memorabilia of our family, but I've never made much of a study of it. He has (or had) a wonderful journal kept by Edgar Allen Poe Haynes during the period of his move to Vancouver. It's a gripping piece of American Victorian morality, and I dearly wish I had a copy. What I do have a copy of is a family register kept first by Maria Bell Eldridge and completed by EAP's wife Cora. It completes (and occasionally conflicts with) your page on the Eldridge Clark Haynes family. Here's a summary of the differences:

0. John, born 10 April 1844, Rochester, OH; died 1 May 1844.

D 1936 1. Mary died in "Washington" (I don't know if that's the state or DC).

? — 3. Hermon was born in Rochester; married in Kerklin; died in Boone Co., IN.

4. Willard was born in Rochester; died in 1927 in Medford, OR.

5. George died 10 Oct 1910 in Elwood, IN (though you probably know better).

6. Victor died in St. Louis, MO.

7. Edgar was born 18 May 1866, and married Cora Schwinn on 25 Nov 1886.

9. Lily was born 3 Oct 1860 in Manchester, Dearburn Co., IN, and died 8 Oct 1860.

10. Herzon was born 31 Oct 1861 in Kirklin, Clinton Co., and died 14 Jan 1863, in Kirklin.

11. Iva was born 16 Nov 1864 in Kirklin, and died 14 Jan 1865.

12. Clara was born and died in 1867.

Here are some further facts for your page on the descendents of EAP (beyond what I mentioned above).

Charles James Wallace Jr. was a doctor, eventually an alcoholic and suicide. He and Hazel had two adopted children, who Hazel and Charles's second wife Mary brought up together after CJW's death.

Evan was a Professor of Law at U. Cal, Berkeley. His wife Irene is still alive and still practices law. You can get more information from her son Duncan, also a lawyer and now also a vinyard owner in Napa Valley (Whitford Cellars, Haynes Vinyard). His wife's name is Pat, and they have 3 children, not one. I visited Duncan and toured his vinyard this past fall. His address is

3305 Highway 128
Calistoga, CA 94515.

Just in case Daphne doesn't tell you, here is what I know about my immediate family:

Robert Parsons Miller was born 12 Sept 1923 in Nutley (?) NJ. He studied at Princeton University, served in the Navy, returned to Princeton and earned a PhD in English literature, especially Chaucer. He's written quite a few articles on Chaucer, and edited a book of source material. Daphne, as Eldridge told you, returned to school and became a lawyer, clerking in the New York supreme court. They both retired in 1985 to Florida.

I was born 29 Jan 1948 in Princeton, went to Harvard, then to Princeton for a PhD in mathematics. Since then I've worked at Harvard, Northwestern, University of Washington, Institute for Advanced Study, University of Notre Dame, Paris VII, and, for the past three and a half years, at MIT. On 26 June 1971, in St Paul MN, I married Juli Rose Hendrickson (Born 15 Apr 1949, in St. Paul, parents Melvin and Rose Ourada Hendrickson). We have two kids: Jeanne Eleanor, born in Seattle 2 Sept 1980, and Eric Haynes, born in Seattle 6 Aug 1984.

I also have a brother!--Geoffrey Parsons Miller, born in Princeton 17 Oct 1950. He went to Princeton, then to law school at Columbia. After working in private practice in New York and with the Justice Department in Washington, he moved to the University of Chicago where he teaches in the law school (and until recently was the associate dean there). He married Joan Falk, and they have two kids, Jason (born 29 March 1986 in Chicago) and Forrest (born 14 December 1987 in Chicago). You can get more details from them, at

5752 South Harper
Chicago, IL 60637.

I assume Elliott explained to you that both his children are adopted, that Brooke is now divorced, and that Elliott himself has for some years been married to Polly, nee Burwell, daughter of Robert and Elise Burwell of Evanston, IL.

Eldridge's second wife Kathleen Wilson actually has been married three times. By her first husband, Holmes, she had a son Garrick, who now lives in France and Geneva with his wife Ann. He worked for Eldridge's company BI for many years, till after it was sold a few years ago. Eldridge and Kathleen's daughter Kathleen married Greg Schorr, who works as a doctor for the BIA. They have two children, Rosemary and Ian. For more information, their address is:

4330 North Via Simoza
Tucson, AZ 85705.

Their son Evan married Judy ___, and they have two children, Megan and Julia (who was born 21 May 1980). Their address is:

180 Glenwood Ave.
Portland, ME 04103.

2245 Kathleen Wilson is now married to Sir Alastair Pilkington; they live in London and in the Lakes District. Kathleen is a good correspondent, and might well have more information on Eldridge and his ancestors and descendents. Their address is:

74 Eaton Place
London SW1X 8AU.

I hope this is somewhat helpful. It must amaze you how little we all know about our family, and how inaccurate the little we think we do know really is! Please keep me informed about your work.

Sincerely,
Haynes

Dear Marian,

Thanks for your letter.

I have no middle name. Born 2/2/26 in New York City. First married Dec. 8, 1950 to Virginia Chamberlain in New York City. Married again on Oct. 2, 1969 to Mary Elise (Polly) Burwell in New York City.

Virginia was born Sept. 21, 1919 in Alexandria, Va. Polly was born Oct. 10, 1942 in Evanston, Illinois. My son Peter Elliott Haynes was born in New York City on Feb. 14, 1954, and my daughter Brooke (with an "e") was born in New York City on Jan. 13, 1954. Both were adopted.

My ex son-in-law, Kevin James Lenfest, was born in Rutland, Vt. on Dec. 31, 1955 and married Brooke on May 27, 1978 in Shrewsbury, VT. (my home).

My granddaughter Robin was born Feb. 25, 1985 in Rutland, VT., and my grandson Kevin James (Jamie) Lenfest was born Nov. 12, 1922 in Rutland, VT.

I studied at Williams College (Mass.), College of the Holy Cross (Worcester, Mass.), U. of North Carolina (Chapel Hill), and graduated from Yale College in 1947. Then I studied at Oxford University (England) from 1948-50.

I co-founded Business International Corp. with Eldridge, where both of us worked 12-16 hours a day for the first few years to make it a success. I am a founder and charter member of the Academy of International Business, a member of the Hall of Fame of the Association for Education in International Economics and Business, and was an adjunct professor of international business at Pace University in New York City. On retirement, in Vermont, I sang in our local choir, was president of The Shrewsbury Historical Society (and created its museum), was a member of the Shrewsbury Fire Reg't, and took up the tuba again, playing in the Central VT. Symphony Orchestra.

But mainly I have worked for Polly, who has created a nationally famous herb business (Meadowsweet Herb Farm) here in Shrewsbury. Polly graduated from Wheaton College (Mass.) and is an accomplished violinist and equestrienne (she has five Morgan horses).

Peter graduated from Syracuse U. with a double major in physics and electrical engineering, and works in Newport Beach, CA for Rockwell International developing new, advanced computer chips. He is an ocean sailing racer in his leisure time.

Ocean Sailing racer?

Kevin Lenfest is a building contractor. Neither Virginia or Brooke went to college. Kevin never finished college.

My half sister, Kathleen ("Kitten") is best known as a ballet dancer. She started two ballet troupes — one in New York City and a second in Tucson, Arizona.

Peter married Debra Boiteau in Newport Beach on June 1, 1985. Debra was born Nov. 26, 1952. They have no children.

Hope this helps.

Cheers,

Elliott

P.S. I think you're too charitable about EAP. He was clearly one of America's great con artists. Trouble was, he didn't know it — he believed in his own lies.

Dear Marian,

I don't know how I forgot to mention my principal community service here in Vermont – but I did!

Some 12-13 years ago I went on the Board of our local Rutland Visiting Nurse Association, from there was elected to the Board of the Vermont Assembly of Home Health Agencies (representing all the State's VNAs). Eight years ago the Vermont legislature established the Vermont State Independence Fund, to which I was appointed by the Governor as Chairman of the Board – and have held that post ever since. The Independence Fund is a pioneering concept to elicit the energies of local groups (by providing grants as seed money) in establishing the plethora of services which the elderly and disabled need to stay out of nursing homes and hospitals and lead a dignified life at home or in their communities. It has worked quite well — and has been an inspiring experience for me. Bush's "1000 points of light" is for real if the volunteers involved get a spark (seed money) to get started, establish credibility and win local, private financial support.

All of this is probably like the kid's book report on Elephants, in which he said the book taught him more about elephants than he really wanted to know.

Cheers,
Elliott

Edgar Allen Poe Haynes

Edgar Allen Poe Haynes a graduate of the elementary school in Kirklin, IN. founded a school in Kirklin which would provide an education beyond 8th grade. Cora Schwinn, his future wife, was hired to teach. Later he became an insurance agent, serving Clinton and Marion Cos.IN, in a day when insurance was a new idea. He and Cora were married Nov. 25, 1886, and moved to Indianapolis. Cora's family has been known for many, many years as makers of the Schwinn bicycle. Her father was born in Germany, and her mother was born in NC.

Edgar was later promoted and transferred to St. Louis, where he was eventually involved in several philanthropic endeavors, including the Gidean Bible and the establishment of a home for old people.

In St. Louis, Edgar's business interests became more promotional in nature. His most successful effort being Portland Cement for streets and highways which were then beginning to criss-cross the nation. As a result, he was invited to introduce the product in England. The childhood memories of Edgar's youngest son Eldridge included a very large, well-staffed house in London, where his mother (Cora) baked pies at night after the servants had retired. Edgar met Arthur Conan Doyle while there and made large contributions to Doyle's spiritualism movement.

Upon the family's return to the United States, Edgar was retained by John Wanamaker to reorganize the Wanamaker store in Philadelphia where, among other innovations, music and religious programs were introduced for the edification of store customers. He was also instrumental in founding the Fiat Motor Company and several newspapers.

Around 1906, he embarked upon an unknown venture which involved at least one of his brothers--George--and possibly also brothers Victor and Carter who were both in St. Louis in 1900. The undertaking failed, causing major financial loss for all involved. Other failures followed; and at some point, his marriage also failed. He became interested in a shadowy "other" woman named Mary and left Cora. A boy named Walter was the result of this liason.

By Aug. 1922 he was living in Great Falls, Montana, with Mary and Walter. From a journal kept in the fall of that year, it appears that he and Mary were married and--from a single reference--that a second baby was expected. He was deeply in debt and involved in a collapsing oil investment business. The journal shows that he suffered from crushing depression because he could not reconcile his intelligence and experience with his recent failures.

His financial situation was so desperate that it appears he used funds paid him by investors for his family's rent and groceries, a fact he reported regularly in his journal with no comment. He spent time in prayer and Bible study in an effort to pull himself out of his black hole. He had friends who cared about him, and enemies who hated him. The journal ended when the family moved to Vancouver, BC in Canada to escape creditors and to make a new start.

Edgar died in Vancouver in August of 1923. His journal is owned by Haynes Miller of Newton, MA. Some members of the family eventually met Mary and her children.

Cora Schwinn Haynes, meantime, raised her children Hazel, Evan and Eldridge. She also raised Frieda and Carl Haynes, children of Edgar's brother Carter, after their mother died in 1899.

On Cora's 56th birthday, Edgar noted in his journal--"How very much and unjustly she has suffered and how bravely lived....The law of her life has been Right, and she has nobly lived up to it. As Evan once expressed it, she has always done her best. Of course, she never wants to see me again, but I do hope some time to be able to discharge some part of the material obligation I owe her." Two days after he wrote that, he received a wire remittance of $10 from Cora. She lived to be 93 years old, much loved by the entire Haynes family.

Evan Haynes, Edgar and Cora's oldest son, was a Professor of Law at the University of CA, Berkeley. WW I service.

Duncan Haynes, Evan's son, is also a lawyer, and as of this writing owner of Whitford Cellars, Haynes Vinyard, in Napa Valley, CA.

Diana Haynes Romer is married to Robert H. Romer, who is physics professor at Amherst College, and editor of the American Journal of Physics. Diana has contributed her time and energies to community activities, which includes six years on the Amhurst, MA, Board of Selectmen, New England's name for the city council; and two of those years she served a chairman of the board, the rough equivilent of mayor. Their son Evan is a high school teacher (computers and math) in Binghamton,NY. Son David and his wife Christina are both Economics professors at the University of CA., Berkeley. Youngest son David is a computer science major at the University of Texas.

Eldridge Haynes, youngest son of Edgar and Cora, served as vice president of McGraw Hill, subsequently founded Modern Industry, Inc., and was sent in 1942 by the United States State Department to Britain to assess that country's wartime capacity. In 1954, he founded Business International Corp., a multinational publishing and service organization, viewing the world globally rather than nationalistically. With offices in major cities all over the world, the client list included the world's largest corporations. An executive round table was established, which met periodically with world leaders. These included the Russians, which was the first time the communist government and capitalist business executives had met to discuss world problems. Eldridge retired to the Virgin Islands in 1969.

Daphne Haynes Miller, oldest child of Eldridge, is married to Robert P. Miller. After raising their two sons, she returned to school and studied law, clerking afterwards in the NY Supreme Court. Robert studied at Princeton, served in the Navy, returned to Princeton where he earned a PhD in English Literature with an emphasis on Chaucer. He is the author of several articles about Chaucer, and editor of a book of source material. They retired in 1985, and divide their time between Sanibel Island in Florida and Murray Isle in the St. Lawrence River.

Haynes Miller, Daphne and Robert's oldest son, attended Harvard University, and earned his PhD in mathematics. He has worked at Harvard, Northwestern, University of Washington, Institute for Advanced Study, University of Notre Dame and Paris VII. He is currently with MIT.

Geoffrey Miller, son of Daphne and Robert, attended Princeton University, followed by law school at Columbia. He worked in private practice in New York and with the Justice Department in Washington DC, and is currently teaching in the law school at the University of Chicago, where he has served as associate dean.

Dear Marion:

My son Haynes sent you EAP Haynes' journal = not me. He also sent me a copy - the first time I have seen it. You are so right! It is sad. The man appears to have been breaking down. We cannot figure out what the purpose of the various corporations he speaks of was. It alsmot seems that they were empty shells formed solely for the purpose of raising money for EAP.

Judging from the fact that people did give him money suggests that he must have been an accomplished salesman _ or very attractive, especially to women. It appears that selling or "promoting" was what he did all his life. But it also appears that sometimes he actually had something to sell - life insurance or Portland cement for example. I believe that his time in Vancouver was a disaster and that he was there for only a few months before he died, perhaps escaping from the law. I seem to remember hearing something like that.

Did I neglect to give you information about my son Geof? I found part of a rough draft of my letter to you which seems to omit that information. If so here it is. Geoffrey Parsons Miller was born on Oct 17, ~~1973~~ 1950 in Princeton, N.J. He graduated from Princeton University in 1973 and from Columbia University Lwa School in 1978 (where he was editor in chief of law review). He clerked for Justice White in the Supreme Court, worked for the justice dept and is now a professor of law at the University of Chicago. In 1984 he married Joan Falk, Princeton grad and ph.d. psychologist. They have 2 children: Jason Falk Miller, born March 29, 1986 and Forrest Sackett Miller, born Dec. 14, 1987.

Did I omit anything else?

One of these days I shall get up the courage to go through the trunks full of loose papers and pictures I inherited from my parents and see if there are any things you might find interesting.

Thank you for writing. We love to hear from you. Some day come to Sanibel. The place is rife with middle westerners - you might find friends or neighbors (as well as ~~neighbors~~ relatives) here

Love
Daphne

Dear Marian,

Thankyou so much for all of the Haynes family information! I'm embarrassed about taking so long to respond especially since I have no good excuse!

I have sent Diana Romer a copy of the form requesting information on children and grandchildren. I have also sent Mary Wallace the first page which has information on her in-laws - The Charles Wallace's - She may be able to add to it or make some corrections - She did tell Irene over the phone that Cora Schwinn died on July 4th in 1959 in Sacramento, CA.

I think it is wonderful that you are doing all this exhaustive work on the family tree - Our daughter Lori is planning a visit from Germany this summer and will be very pleased with all the information you have sent to us - Coincidentally, a 3rd cousin of mine in Australia tracked me down recently and sent a volume of material on my side of the family.

Dunc has been busy the last couple of weeks working on preparations for a US Supreme Court hearing - He spends most of his time working on vineyard and winery matters but has been dealing with the one law case since he left his law firm in 1985

I help out with winery work - mostly the bookkeeping side but I also do occasional "cellar rat" duties (filling barrels, crushing grapes etc)

Our eldest, Barney, paints houses to provide the funds to further a career in art - video installations to be exact. Geoff just began practicing tax law last October in San Francisco - He & his wife expect another child in November - I'll send the statistics on!

Lori met a german civil engineer when she was studying at U.C. Berkeley. At the present it looks like she and her nice family will permanently reside in Germany but we always have a glimmering of hope they will live a little closer some day. We do get some interesting first hand information on the latest happenings in Europe -

Thankyou again for sending us the results of your hard work. If I can be of help in any way please let me know (I will try to be a little more prompt!)

Sincerely,

Pat Haynes

Dear Mary,

Many thanks for your contribution to the Haynes family history. I remember my Mother and uncles talking about the Wallaces, but think I've only seen very old snapshots. I remember once, my parents visited Charles when they were traveling in Calif. I thought all those people were younger than it turns out they were. But then, I was younger when I heard about them too.

I had noted that Charles died after 1935 because that was the last real contact my Uncle had made a note of. I know the family was in touch after that, but didn't know when that was....Can't even recall when it was my parents would have seen Charles in Calif. My mom died in 1952--so I'm thinking back a long time!

If it's not too much trouble, I would like to have your full name and when you and Charles were married; also the names of his children, their birthdates, married names, where they are presently living, etc.

I hope I am eventually going to have this genealogy printed and make copies available to all who are interested; but at the moment I've just having a wonderful time contacting relatives I've never met and getting to know them! I would never have attempted to do this if my uncle had not left an enormous amount of family information to work with. And I didn't really start attempting to follow up on his data until we acquired a computer, which has made the entire process much easier and more accurate! Thanks again for your help, and my greetings to Charles' offspring who would be my second-cousins-once-removed!

Most sincerely,

Marian Shirley

Dear Marian,

Thank you for your lovely letter and the news about your wonderful project. My apologies for being so slow in answering -- my only excuse is that we have had an unusual number of serious crises this year, but all is well now and I'm finally catching up with my life!

Here is what you need to know:

Kathleen Verity Haynes -- born, 8/21/45 in New York, N.Y.
Married in St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands on 4/13/74 to Gregory Ira Shorr. He was born on 1/5/46 in Chicago, Ill.

Our children are Rosemary Haynes Shorr, born 1/30/79 in Tucson, Az. and Ian Haynes Shorr, born 1/2/82 also in Tucson.

I started "work" on this same family tree when I was about 10 and I am so delighted to know you are researching it. I have fond feelings for Indianapolis, even though I've never been there, because, also when I was 10 I inherited Pierre Haynes' very own flute. I still play it (we have a sort of family band) and cherish it. It is, of course, a Haynes flute (a Boston family, no relation as far as I know) who made some of the world's best flutes. Mine is so old that the fingering is totally different from today's flutes, and evidently Pierre had an unusually short baby finger on his left hand because the G-sharp key has an extension on it.

I hope if you ever get to the southwest that you will be sure to let us know and good luck with your geneology. If there is anything else you need to know, please write and I promise to reply more promptly.

Best wishes for a happy summer --

Sincerely:

Kathleen Shorr

Dear Marian,

I apologise for having taken so long to respond to your letter of almost a year ago. We moved from Portland last year and just unearthed the family history today. I am more than happy to fill in what blanks I can.

My full name is Evan Wilson Haynes. I was born on April 13, 1952 in New York city. On Jan. 2nd 1982 I was married to Judith Ann Ziegler DO. Judith was also born in NY, on Nov. 25, 1954. We have two children as you know, Meagan Ziegler-Haynes (born June 7 1975, St. Johnsbury, VT.) and Julia Ziegler-Haynes (born May 21 1980, Whitefield, NH.).

My mother, Kathleen Wilson, was born in Girard, Kansas on Jan. 15, 1911, not 1915 as is recorded on the printout. Her first husband's name was Rawson Holmes and their son is Garrick Holmes.

My father, Eldridge Haynes, died on June 10 1976 in Lloyd's Harbor , New York. He had been living on St. Croix since 1970.

Pat and Duncan Haynes I believe have two children. Barney is the name of their son. Laurie, incidently, at one time was very interested in the family genealogy and might be a possible source for more detail.

I am sorry that my knowledge of these family histories is as sketchey as it is. I am fascinated by what you have sent and encourage you to continue. Again I apologise for any apparent indifference to your efforts.

Sincerely,

P.S. I'VE ENCLOSED A COPY OF A LETTER RE: CORA HAYNES. I DON'T KNOW THE SOURCE

Oct. 2, 1990

Dear Kathleen,

It was nice to hear from you this summer. Thank you for all the facts. I had forgotten about the flute until you mentioned it, and then I recalled that Auntie Nelle (Pierre's wife) said she had given it to you. She was happy that someone in the family was going to have it. Uncle Pierre played his flute alot. Auntie Nelle played the piano. I recall that they were in several small orchestras which accompanied amature musicals in Indianapolis. I remember most vividly seeing a production of "Mikado" in which they participated.

I also remember a Christmas morning when I was probably about five. My sister and I received a nursery rhyme book with not only poems, but all the tunes one associates with nursery rhymes. My mom also played the piano, and another aunt who was present played a violin. The four of them took our new book and played all the tunes in it, Mother and Aunt Nelle playing duet-style on the piano, the other auntie with her violin and Uncle Pierre with his flute. They laughed and had more fun--but somehow it was lost on Janey and me. THEY had our book!

I have two reasons for writing you. One is I would like to know where you went to college, what you studied and what interests you have now--besides your family, of course. I'm enclosing some additional notes on your grandfather's group. It is not complete, but thought you might like to see it as far as I've gotten with it. Also it might give you an idea what information the others have sent me.

Now, the other reason I need you is that I have never heard from Evan. I wonder if you can give me what I need to know...I don't even have his birthdate or his middle name!
The following applies to Evan, Judy (need maiden name), Megan and Julia. For each, I need:

Full name (middle name and maiden name too)
Birth date and where Marriage date and where

Also--where did Evan go to college? What is his occupation? Does he have any special talent or interest--or community activity.

My other problem is Garrick. I understand your Dad adopted him. Can you give me any of the vital statistics on him--or other information. I wrote to your Mother once, but have never heard from her. What is her birthdate? I plan to write her again this week. It is so nice to be in touch with all of you. I hope we all can meet one day. I have another cousin in Tuscon, whom I have threatened to visit--just haven't gotten around to it yet. One of these days....

This is all for now. Hope you have time (and no crisis) to mess with this.

Love,

Marian S—

The childhood memories of Edgar's youngest son Eldridge included a very large, well-staffed house in London, where his mother (Cora) baked pies at night after the servants had retired. Edgar met Arthur Conan Doyle while there and made large contributions to Doyle's spiritualism movement.

Upon the family's return to the United States, Edgar was retained by John Wanamaker to reorganize the Wanamaker store in Philadelphia where, among other innovations, music and religious programs were introduced for the edification of store customers. He was also instrumental in founding the Fiat Motor Company and several newspapers.

Around 1906, he embarked upon an unknown venture which involved at least one of his brothers--George--and possibly also brothers Victor and Carter who were both in St. Louis in 1900. The undertaking failed, causing major financial loss for all involved. Other failures followed; and at some point, his marriage also failed. He became interested in a shadowy "other" woman named Mary and left Cora. A boy named Walter was the result of this liason.

By Aug. 1922 he was living in Great Falls, Montana, with Mary and Walter. From a journal kept in the fall of that year, it appears that he and Mary were married and--from a single reference--that a second baby was expected. He was deeply in debt and involved in a collapsing oil investment business. The journal shows that he suffered from crushing depression because he could not reconcile his intelligence and experience with his recent failures.

His financial situation was so desperate that it appears he used funds paid him by investors for his family's rent and groceries, a fact he reported regularly in his journal with no comment. He spent time in prayer and Bible study in an effort to pull himself out of his black hole. He had friends who cared about him, and enemies who hated him. The journal ended when the family moved to Vancouver, BC in Canada to escape creditors and to make a new start.

Edgar died in Vancouver in August of 1923. His journal is owned by Haynes Miller of Newton, MA. Some members of the family eventually met Mary and her children.

Cora Schwinn Haynes, meantime, raised her children Hazel, Evan and Eldridge. She also raised Frieda and Carl Haynes, children of Edgar's brother Carter, after their mother died in 1899.

On Cora's 56th birthday, Edgar noted in his journal--"How very much and unjustly she has suffered and how bravely lived....The law of her life has been Right, and she has nobly lived up to it. As Evan once expressed it, she has always done her best. Of course, she never wants to see me again, but I do hope some time to be able to discharge some part of the material obligation I owe her." Two days after he wrote that, he received a wire remittance of $10 from Cora. She lived to be 93 years old, much loved by the entire Haynes family.

Evan Haynes, Edgar and Cora's oldest son, served in France in World War I and was wounded twice. He attended University of California, earning his JD in 1924. He continued as a Professor of Law at the University of CA, Berkeley.

Duncan Haynes, Evan's son, is also a lawyer, and as of this writing owner of Whitford Cellars, Haynes Vinyard, in Napa Valley, CA.

Diana Haynes Romer is married to Robert H. Romer, who is physics professor at Amherst College, and editor of the American Journal of Physics. Diana has contributed her time and energies to community activities, which includes six years on the Amhurst, MA, Board of Selectmen, New England's name for the city council; and two of those years she served as chairman of the board, the rough equivilent of mayor. Their son Evan is a high school teacher (computers and math) in Binghamton,NY. Son David and his wife Christina are both Economics professors at the University of CA., Berkeley. Youngest son David is a computer science major at the University of Texas.

Eldridge Haynes, youngest son of Edgar and Cora, served as vice president of McGraw Hill, subsequently founded Modern Industry, Inc., and was sent in 1942 by the United States State Department to Britain to assess that country's wartime capacity. In 1954, he founded Business International Corp., a multinational publishing and service organization, viewing the world globally rather than nationalistically. With offices in major cities all over the world, the client list included the world's largest corporations. An executive round table was established, which met periodically with world leaders. These included the Russians, which was the first time the communist government and capitalist business executives had met to discuss world problems. Eldridge retired to the Virgin Islands in 1969.

Daphne Haynes Miller, oldest child of Eldridge, is married to Robert P. Miller. After raising their two sons, she returned to school and studied law, clerking afterwards in the NY Supreme Court. Robert studied at Princeton, served in the Navy, returned to Princeton where he earned a PhD in English Literature with an emphasis on Chaucer. He is the author of several articles about Chaucer, and editor of a book of source material. They retired in 1985, and divide their time between Sanibel Island in Florida and Murray Isle in the St. Lawrence River.

Haynes Miller, Daphne and Robert's oldest son, attended Harvard University, and earned his PhD in mathematics. He has worked at Harvard, Northwestern, University of Washington, Institute for Advanced Study, University of Notre Dame and Paris VII. He is currently with MIT.

Geoffrey Miller, son of Daphne and Robert, attended Princeton University, followed by law school at Columbia. He worked in private practice in New York and with the Justice Department in Washington DC, and is currently teaching in the law school at the

Oak Hill Cemetery

University of Chicago, where he has served as associate dean.

Elliott Haynes, Eldridge's son, helped to found International Business Corp. with his father. He served for a time as executive vice president and for a year or two as chairman

Kathleen Haynes Schorr, daughter of Eldridge and Kathleen, presently lives in Tuscon, AR. She now has and plays the flute which once belonged to Pierre E. Haynes, who provided most of the information for the Haynes/Eldridge genealogy.

Questions How did they meet. When married -

Henry Haynes, His Family and His Ancestors
(from notes by Pierre E. Haynes)

Henry Haynes of Dearborn Co.IN was described by PEH as rosey-cheeked, blue-eyed, rotund and lovable. He married Abigail, daughter of Elisha and Mary (Wheadon) Eldridge, probably near Woodstock Co.NY which was where the Eldridges lived in 1810.

Henry and Abigail lived in Saratoga Co.NY where they are listed in 1820, 1830 census. Henry's oldest daughter Mary and her husband William Jordan were the first to move west, settling in Millville, Butler Co.OH about 1833, bringing with them about 100 families from the Saratoga Co. area. Henry and Abigail followed in 1838, settling first in Union Co. IN and soon after in Dearborn Co. In 1835, Henry purchased 80 acres of Indiana from the Crawfordsville land office. (County unspecified, part of unorganized government land now part of Boone Co.IN. It is possible that Eldridge and Maria Bell Haynes settled on this land after 1860.)

John Douglas Haynes was Henry and Abigail's oldest son. After he passed away in 1888, the Manchester Weekly Press devoted two pages to the complete text of an oration in his memory delivered by Judge Holman before the Dearborn County Bar. With reference to John Douglas Haynes' family, he said, "His father was a gentleman of high standing and character; his mother a lady of superior attainments, connected with one of the first families of the State...." The achievements of the sons and daughters of Henry and Abigail illustrate intelligence and talent. John Douglas was a well-known Dearborn Co. lawyer; John Henry was a lumberman and mill owner; two daughters married ministers, one of whom became a bishop in the Methodist church; Myron served in various public offices, including county auditor; Eldridge was a carpenter and furniture maker. Henry himself was a farmer with 2500 acres in Dearborn Co. His grandchildren were pharmacists, merchants, school-teachers and doctors. For more about John Douglas, see the copy of the Manchester Weekly Press article.

Henry and Abigail are buried in the Lawrenceburg,IN area "at Methodist-Episcopal burial grounds near Pleasant View --Manchester,IN." Manchester is no longer in existence.

Pierre E. Haynes apparently had some reason to believe that Henry was the son of one Barney Haynes, who died when Henry was quite young, leaving him to be raised by a family named Houghteling or Hafter.

Henry II and Barney Haynes: Henry (Jr.) , apparent son of Heindrick of New Dorloo, and his family can be found in the first United State census 1790 in Canajohari, Montgomery Co.NY just north of Schoharie Co.--1 male under 16, 2 males over 16, 4 females and 1 slave. Records show that Henry (Jr.) had brother who went to Canada about 1780 and married there.

French-Canadian records show that "Bernard Ains", a Tory (Loyalist) had come to Canada about 1780, following an Indian raid, and there he married Elizabeth Fry. About 1782-3, he returned with Elizabeth. Barney and Elizabeth are the parents of Henry Haynes who came with his family to Dearborn Co.IN c.1836. According to the 1850 census, Henry Haynes (III) was born in NY in 1783.

Barney died in New York shortly after their return.

Elizabeth left young Henry with relatives named Houghteling or Hafter, went back to Canada. She never returned or saw him again. (See Frey family section)

Heindrick Heens: Haines is a Norman name, which comes from Haisne--a village in northern France, not fifty miles from the Belgian border, and about fifty miles from the coast of the English channel. The earliest Haynes in New England was Heindrik "Heens", one of the original proprietors of New Dorloo, NY. By 30 Nov 1753, Heindrik owned 15,000 acres on the north side of Cobleskill, NY (Schoharie Co.), seven miles west of the town of Schoharie. He built a stone house and a mill which were still standing in 1942 when they were photographed by Olive Olcott, a descendant. Dorloo was originally called New Dorlach.

In Belgium, PEH found Henri Hanze, born 29 Apr 1683 in Brussels. He married Gretchen Heidleberg 27 June 1704, and the couple had eleven children, the second of which was apparently named Henry. While there is no proof of it, PEH apparently thought it quite likely that this little Henry was the same as Heindrick Heens of Doorloo,NY. Gretchen Heidelberg may have come from Zurich, Switzerland.

Heindrick of New Dorloo probably arrived in New England as a widower or with a wife who died, for he married 2nd Elizabeth Rickard of Schenectady, the widow of a Marcus Rickard. She had a son John Rickard. PEH believed that Hendrick and his first wife were probably the parents of Henry and Barney Haynes. Although he found no record of this, the circumstances make his supposition probable. Elizabeth, Heindrick's second wife, was dead before 10 Mar 1760.

Notes: Grace Roberg, another descendant, said in her notes that PEH told her that he had found a Henri Hanze, who was born 30 Nov 1732 in Ghent, Belgium. He married Cholette LeDezma, a French Norman girl, and came to new England 1757. This Henri may be related, but does not appear to be part of the direct line.]

The writer corresponded in 1975 with Patricia Fleeson, daughter of Grace Roberg, Pat provided the copy of the oration memorializing John Douglas, her ancestor, and other information regarding the descendants of John Douglas. Pat has two sisters: Mary Haynes Roberg Winton (Mrs. John) and Dorothy Jane Roberg Trounson (Mrs. Edmund). Jane is a nuclear physicist.

Queen Ann of England deported many Germans to New York (1707-1714), which had already been settled by the Dutch. The Dutch persuaded many Germans and Scandinavians to come with them to the general region of the Mohawk Valley. At the same time, the French were moving down from Canada into the same area. This situation explains the presence of the Haynes and the Freys in Schoharie and Montgomery Cos. NY.

Carl and Freda: Cora Haynes reared them .

When we were discussing the family with Daphne Haynes' new husband of a few days, one of asked Cousin Cora about Augusta. "Well, she was crazy, of course, but not dangerous."

* Lois Winecoop

She became a doctor in Chicago when there were almost no women doctors. Brilliant student she used to go to classes wrapped in shawl. She wouldn't accept anything from her family because they had opposed her first romance. Contracted tuberculosis, wanted to die so when sent to Arizona, bicyled like a wild woman every day. Instead of killing her she was cured. Returned to Chicago and married Dr. Frank Winecoop. She later became head of the Women and Children's hospital. When her husband died, she signed death certificate and it was not questioned. Later, after cocoa and a heart-to-heart talk with her adopted daughter, the girl died and again Lois signed the death certificate. Lois' son traveled a good deal and made the mistake of informing him mother that he was tired of his wife. Lois tried cocoa and the heart-to-heart approach. Then got daughter-in-law on operating table in her home office. The girl suspedted foul play and struggled..Lois had to finish her off with a gun. This time the police investigated. She was tried and convicted to life imprisonment in Joliet. (1930's) Used to play bridge with Warden and his wife. Beware of cocoa and the heart-to-heart!

As told by P. E. Haynes.

Name Address Relationship

We have an unsubstantiated story that we are descended from Henri or Hendrik Hanse Hanze born in Brussels April 29, 1683. He married Gretchen Heidleberg of Brussels 6-27-1704 and they had eleven children of whom their second was Henri (II) born in Ghent, Belgium Nov. 30, 1732. He married Cholette Le Dezma a French Normandy girl. Here the story is broken but Henry Haynes Sr. and Henry Haynes, Jr. arrived in America about 1757 and settled at New Dorlach(now Dorloo) N.Y. They were known as he built house and mill about 1760 [illegible]

Germans. A brother of Henry Jr. ran off to Canada and was married in 1780. Mill & farm still standing

Dear Marian,

What a surprise to receive a letter from Indianapolis. The only time I have been to Indianapolis was in 1934 when Mother (Grace Haynes Roberg) and my sisters, Jane & Mary Haynes drove back East. We stopped to see a relative in Indianapolis and I think it was your mother. While we were talking in the garden a plane bussed us overhead and our relative yelled up there just as though she could be heard "Come on down here. Stop it ! You'll kill yourself." She said it was her daughter. Was that you? Or a sister?

Let me say friend, I have done nothing since your letter came but pour through old papers and files. Yesterday my husband came home at 5:30 and I couldn't believe it wasn't two o'clock. I must say it is fascinating. I have always put off going into this stuff and probably never would if you hadn't written. I drafted a family tree and not only put in all I could find on my mother's side but on my husband's side too (both of his parents as well and let me say this soon fans out into an unbelievable population explosion in reverse. Fortunately my father had a very pragmatic attitude about ancestors. I can remember after listening to lengthy explanations of the Haynes family from Mother that we asked my father about his family. He drew a long breath and then said,"Well, they're most all dead now."

As you can see from the enclosed chart I probably don't have it right. But I did figure out the mystery of the "connection" Eldridge Haynes I married his first cousin Maria Eldridge and the connection was that my great great grandmother was Abigail Eldgidge. As far as the stuff on the early English lords is concerned, I don't know where my sister got this. If you are interested you might write her She has always been the historian of the family.(however you are rapidly hooking me.)

As you can see from the chart I am going to be 59 in November. I am married to an attorney (Harvard trained) from Kansas. I always have a struggle whed I come to filling the blank on the form that says Occupation....... I have even resorted to putting in "Pickpocket" rather than the hateful "Housewife." But I can say with certainty that I am not a professional. Painter, dishwasher, civic worker, puppeteer, college trustee, pants mender... but noboday PAYS me for anything. We have two boys. Tyler is 24 and is a struggling slow maturing poet. He is living in a house with a friend (male this time) and together they are remodeling it. They hope to make money. He has worked at commercial fishing every summer for the last few years and last year they made $6000 for the season and so he went around the world with a pack sack. He is tall, blond, curly haired strong quick and a TALKER. I wonder where he got that! He is a maverick who has produced a premature head of gray hair on his mother. "Mom, I'm down in the jail." "What's the charge, Ty?" "Kidnapping." He is a college graduate-- English major equipped for??????? He has edited four Poetry magazines but nobody pays for that.

The younger son is Bradford. He is even taller than Ty. He is 6'2" and lean. Looks quite a bit like Mark Spitz. He is in Oregon State University and seems to be spending his time playing the guitar. He isn't a joiner either but is a bit more conventional than his brother. When I look at what I have written about these birds you would think they were gorgeous. But actually they are always such a mess that you would never know they were knockouts. Hair, clothes, grubby shoes, beaten up pickup trucks.

A quick resumé of my sisters & families and I will let you go.

Mary Haynes Winton (Mrs. John N. jr.) lives at 2027 Killarney way, Bellevue, Wash. 98004. John is an executive searcher & business consultant in Seattle. They live in a lovely spot on Lake Washington and have two children. Kate the elder is 15 witha head of beautiful red orange hair. Both children are beautiful, smart,funny and considerate. I have never seen such kids. If they weren't related so closely I would be green with jealousy... as it is I am only chartreuse. Graham Haynes is 13. He loves acting and mimicry and his teacher's report says that she is cracked up by his productions although she has to tone them down to even get them to an "R" rating. Incidentally, Haynes,my sister worked on Fortune Magazine before she was married.

Jane is 20 months older than I. She is a physicist and is married to one, Dr. Edmund Trounson. He was her boss and she did not marry until she was 50. She has been working on her own project for almost 20 years. It is a comprehensive theory of nuclear physics which is so abstruse that I aan't even describe it. But looking at Nova recently I see that she is working on a theory which will meld two divergant branches or theories of matter. She is constantly being urged to publish it and she keeps saying she will but then she wants to try it out on another problem and see if it works. So far it has thrilled her every time. Her Husband (who was her boss) says he thinks she could get the Nobel prize for it. Well, I wish she would publish it before someone else does.

Incidentally, I met Pierre and spent an evening with him at Eldridge and Kathleen's apartment in New York in the 50s. Did Eldridge tell you about his home in St. Croix? I sounds fabulous. We travel quite a bit and I wish I could think of an excuse to stop off there. I can't think where I would be on my way to though.

I enjoyed your letter. If you can fill in any more information please do. You can keep the chart. If you want any of the other stuff copy what you want but I would appreciate having it back. The letter is from Olive Patterson Olcott whom we visited in Aurora. Her husband was a Pharmacist and I think she was a bit older than Mother.

Are you properly confused?

Wishing you luck

JAMES.—EDMUND JAMES, proprietor, 1636–7; Selectman, 1638; adm. freeman, May 18, 1631. [Perhaps it was his wid., REANA JAMES, of Wat., who entered into a marriage contract with William Andrew, of Camb., Aug. 21, 1663.]

JENISON (Jennison, Jennings. By the later generations always written Jennison).

There were two early settlers of Wat., of the name of JENISON, WILLIAM and ROBERT, who were brothers.

1 WILLIAM JENISON was one of those who first signified their desire, Oct. 19, 1630, to be admitted freemen, and he was adm. the next May. He usually had the prefix "Mr.;" was mem. of the Artillery Co., 1637; Captain of the train band, 1638; Selectman, 1635 to '42, and '44, and was Rep., 1637, to '42, and '45. He commanded one of the companies sent, in 1636, to avenge the murder of Mr. John Oldham, by the Pequod Indians, at Black Island. About 1645, he sold his homestead to Rev. John Knowles (who afterwards sold it to William Bond, Esq.), and not long after returned to England, where he probably d. It appears by Winthrop (I., 133), that he had been a resident of Bermuda. No notice has been discovered of either wife or children of Capt. Jenison. [For a view of his character and worth, see Winthrop II., 176.]

William Jenison

2 (I.) ROBERT JENISON was probably several years younger than his brother William. His name is not on the earliest list of proprietors (Feb. 1636–7), but he had a daughter b. in Wat., Ap., 1637, which is the earliest notice of him that I have discovered. He was adm. freeman, May, 1645. His wife ELIZABETH d. Oct. 30, 1638, aged 30, and he soon after m. GRACE ——, who d. Nov. 26, 1686, and he d. July 4, 1690. His Will, dated Sept. 15, 1688, with a codicil, dated Ap. 2, 1689, proved Oct. 7, 1690, mentions dr. Micael Warren, son-in-law George Reed, son Samuel, whom he calls his third son, and grandsons William and Robert Jenison. To his grandsons he gave land that formerly belonged to his brother William. Although he mentions Samuel as his third son, it is not probable that his first and second son survived him or left chil.

3 1. ELIZABETH, b. Ap. 12, 1637; m., in Woburn, Oct. 4, 1652, Dea. GEORGE REED, b. 1629, son of William and Mabel Reed, of Woburn.

* A sheet was printed in Boston, in 1834, entitled "History of the Jones Family," accompanied by a genealogical tree, prepared by Mr. William H. Jones, Jr. [159–1], from a manuscript written several years previously by Israel Jones, Esq., of Adams, Mass. From this sheet, only lately put into my hands, I have received valuable additional information respecting some of the branches of this family. It is, however, very deficient in dates, &c., which greatly lessens its value. It is to be hoped that some person or association, in this family, will take up this genealogy where it is now left, and make it as full and accurate as it ought to be; correcting all the errors and supplying all its defects, adding such biographical sketches as any of the members are entitled to.

licensed by the Gen. Court, Oct. 7, 1640, to keep an ordinary in Hingham. In Nov. 1646, he was appointed one of the Commissioners to end small causes, and was elected Deputy of Hingham in 1648, 49, &c. His Will, dated May 18, proved July 28, 1657, mentions wife Mary (Ex'x), eldest son John, son Joseph, drs. Mary Otis, Elizabeth Thackster, Sarah Cushen, Hannah (m., Dec. 13, 1657, Thomas Loring, Jr., of Hull), and Deborah. Inventory, £393 8*s.* 6*d.* [See Geneal. Reg. viii. p. 280.]

JAMES.—The marriage contract between wid. Reana James and William Andrew, was made Aug. 11, 1640, and on Aug. 21, 1664, "Daniel Kempster, aged 77," testified that he witnessed the signature of the contract.

JENNISON.—In 4th line from the bottom, for Black, read Block Island. Mr. William Jennison was by the court, chosen Ancient (ensign) to Capt. Patrick, Aug. 16, 1631, and held the office until Mar. 9, 1636–7, when he was chosen Captain for Watertown. He was one of the first three Commissioners for Watertown, appointed in 1638, to end small causes, and he appears to have held it, by reappointments, until his return to England. Oct. 6, 1634, he was fined £20, by the Court "for upbraiding the court with injustice, uttering these words: 'I pray God deliver me from this court,' professing he had waited from court to court, and could not have justice done him." At the next court, Ap. 7, 1635, this fine was remitted. The Colonial Records show that the court had great confidence in his capacity and integrity. He received numerous appointments on committees, of which he was often chairman, for determining boundaries between towns, and plotting new towns; also on questions of taxation, Indian affairs, and contested land claims. He, and Mr. Mayhew, both of Watertown, were appointed to bring Mr. Nathaniel Eaton (the first principal of Harvard College), to trial for his misconduct, chiefly in relation of his mal-treatment of Nathaniel Briscoe, Jr., son of Nathaniel, Sen., of Watertown.

In May, 1637, he was one of the four commissioners appointed by the court, to provide men, munitions, and provisions for the Pequod war. Sept. 3, 1638, the court granted him 200 acres of land, which was the land mentioned in the following transaction. Ap. 8, 1657, William Jennison, "of Colchester, Old England," by his brother Robert, his att'y, conveyed to Edmund Rice, 200 acres, granted to said William; bounded W. by the Dunster Farm; N. by Sudbury line; E. by Wat. line; S. by Dedham bounds. This land passed from Edmund Rice, to his son Matthew. This conveyance shows that Capt. Jennison was living in England, as late as 1657, and renders it probable that the Jennison family originated in Colchester, Co. of Essex.

According to Frothingham's Hist. of Charlestown, there was a William Jennison, residing there in 1678. This is probably a mistake for Jamieson, or Jameson.

Grace Holden; youngest dr., Lydia; grandchil., Mary Jennison, James and Samuel Barnard, Timothy Barron, and John Holden; also Joseph Bowman. Inventory, dated Oct. 31, 1701. House, &c., £95; farm, 50 acres, £90; farm, 20 acres, £60; 12 acres in lieu of township, £5; 1 acre of meadow, £10. Ap. 5, 1699, James Barnard, of Sud., sold to Samuel Jennison, Sen., of Wat., gent., land in Sudbury. This was probably the land ½ of which he (S. J.) gave to his son William, Sept., 1700.

ROBERT^{1} JENISON #1311

born presumably in the British Isles died 4 July 1690 (Bond); died between 2 April 1687 when he made a codicil to his will of 15 September 1683, and 7 October 1690 when it was proved ("Middlesex Probate 7:99," cited in Giles Memorial) married (1) #1371 Elizabeth (   ), probably no later than 1636

she was born ca 1608 was buried 30 October 1638 AE 30, "Elizabeth Jenison wife of Robert Jenison" in Watertown (Wat VR I:6); she may -- or may not -- have died on the day of burial.

married (2) #1372 Grace (   ), born died 26 November 1686 "wife of Robert" (Wat VR I:57)

27 November 1639, reference in the town records to a "highway that leades from Robert Jennison down to the River.." (Town Records, 1894, p.5)

May 1645, Robert Jenison took the oath as freeman (Massachusetts Colonial Records 2:78-9).

In Robert's will, there was a reference to land that formerly belonged to his brother, William, giving proof of the relationship (Bond)

Robert Jenison took the oath as freeeman May 1645. (MA Colonial Records 2:78-9)

He died sometime after he made a codicil to his will 2 April 1687 and 7 October 1690 when his will was proved. (Middlesex Probate,7:92, cited in the Giles Memorial by John Adams Vinton.) Henry Bond gave his actual date of death in his Genealogy of the Families and Descendants of the Early Settlers of Watertown, MA. His original will was dated 15 Sept 1683; and included a reference to land that formerly belonged to his brother William, which proves a relationship also claimed by Henry Bond.

Elizabeth and Grace were both identified as wives of Robert Jenison in Watertown vital records.

Town Records refer to a "highway that leades from Robert Jennison down to the River..." (Town Records, 1884, p.5.

There are many entries for Samuel in the Watertown Town Records; he was active in town affairs. for example:

6 March 1682/3 "The cuntry invoic was parfected and delevared to the cummitioner Samuel Jenison to be earyed to the Shiertown as the law directs" (2:14); etc.

ROBERT^3 JENNISON (Samuel^2 Robert^1)

born "14 5th m viz July" 1684 (WatVR I:55)

died

married Borothy Thomas

she had married (1) in Boston, 1715, Thomas Whittemore Jr.(Bond) (This marriage should be in Boston VR tho' it's odd, in that case, that Bond did not have a complete date)

Thomas and Dorothy had a son, Thom,as baptized 1 September 1717 by Mr. Angier (Bond)(The inference that her description as "wid" in the baptism registration was in the church record; I'll try for these).

Children of Robert^3 Jennison and Dorothy (Thomas) (Whittemore) Jennison:

+4. i.	JOSEPH^4	b. 6 Dec. 1720, in Cambridge, MA(Bond) (prob. in Cambridge VR; will try)

iii.	Elias^4	b. 23 Sept. 1724 in Framingham (Bond) m. 1748 Hannah Twist settled in Sudbury, MA in Sutton (varying accounts; perhaps in both places?)
iv.	Samuel^4	b. 16 Jan. 1729 (Hist. of Sutton)
v.	Lydia^4	b. 9 June 1731 (Ibid)

Bond,p.307, did not "carry on" with any biographical material on Robert^3, whereas there are more complete data on all his older brothers; I did not find anything more on Robert^3 in Watertown; I think it would be worthwhile to try to find out a little more about him. At least, the births of two children in Framingham certainly suggests he was there 1722-1724, and that might be a place to start.

The History of Sutton claimed that he "zame from Watertown and settled in Sutton about 1727." This was after the registered births of his first three children-of-record; deeds would be useful!

His brother Elias lived in Sutton. Deeds would be useful here; have you any record of either man in Sutton Land Records? Town Records?

Genealogical Memoirs – John Adams Vinton pub. 1864

8, 1657, when his brother Robert, as his attorney, conveyed to Edmund Rice two hundred acres of land in Framingham, granted to him in 1638, by the General Court, as already stated; bounded west by the Dunster farm, north by Sudbury line, east by Watertown line, south by Dedham bounds. Watertown at that time included Waltham, Weston, and most of Lincoln. This conveyance shows that William Jennison was living in England, in 1657, and renders it probable that the Jennison family came from Colchester, in Essex. At what time he died, we are not informed.

For a view of Capt. Jennison's character and worth, see Winthrop, II. 176.

He was a staunch friend of civil and religious liberty; and sometimes a sufferer for this cause. He was fined £20 by the Court, Oct. 6, 1634, "for upbraiding the Court with injustice, uttering these words, 'I pray God, deliver me from this Court;' professing he had waited from Court to Court, and could not have justice done him." This, of course, was an arbitrary and high-handed proceeding. At the next Court, April 7, 1635, this fine was remitted. Not far from this time, he was arraigned for privately expressing his opinion in reference to the course pursued by the British Parliament. He refused to vote for the condemnation and banishment of Mrs. Anne Hutchinson, in 1637.

The foregoing notice of William Jennison is gathered chiefly from Bond's Watertown Genealogies.

ROBERT JENNISON,[1] brother of the preceding, was, as already stated, the ancestor of the existing New England families. He was probably several years younger than William. His name is not on the earliest list of Watertown Proprietors (Feb. 1636–7), but he was certainly there at that time, or very shortly after, as he had a daughter born in that town, April 1637; the earliest notice of him which has been discovered. He was admitted freeman, in May, 1645.

He was grantee of six lots of land, in Watertown. His homestall of six acres was in the angle where Cambridge Road and Bank Lane began, a little to the east from Mill Bridge.* Besides this, we find him in 1644, in possession of eighty-five acres; and he afterwards seems to have been the possessor of much more.

In a deed given by him, Aug. 10, 1672, he calls himself "yeoman." His will is dated Sept. 15, 1683, with a codicil, April 2, 1687; proved Oct. 7, 1690; recorded Midd. Prob. 7 : 99. He gives to his wife his whole estate, during her natural life; to his dau. Michal Warren, forty shillings; to his son-in-law George Read, twenty shillings; to his grandson William Jennison, forty acres of land, "which was my brother's, formerly granted to him by this town;" to his grandson Robert Jennison, thirty acres of my farm, "which was formerly my brother William Jennison's." After the wife's death, his son Samuel is to have the whole estate, except as above given. His son Samuel Jennison is appointed Executor. Inventory taken July 24, 1690.

* His homestall was east of the lowest falls on Charles River, at the head of tide-water. "Cambridge Road," i. e., the road to the College, is now called Mount Auburn Street.

He died July 4, 1690.

He was twice married; 1, to Elizabeth ———, who d. Oct. 30, 1638, a. 30. 2, to Grace ———, who d. Nov. 26, 1686.

His children were—by first wife, Elizabeth—

He spent his life in Watertown, and had for those days a handsome property, chiefly in land. In sundry deeds, he is called "yeoman," and "gentleman." He was admitted freeman, Oct. 11, 1682; and was town clerk, in 1691. His will, dated Nov. 30, 1700; proved Nov. 3, 1701; recorded Midd. Rachel Barron, dau. Grace Holden, youngest dau. Lydia, then under eighteen years of age; also ten shillings apiece to my five grandchildren now living, viz., Mary Jennison, James Barnard, Samuel Barnard, Timothy Barron, and John Holden. Also to my grandchild Joseph Bowman, forty acres of my farm in Watertown.

C. 1733; ord. pastor of North Precinct of Norton, (afterwards, April, 1770, incorporated as the town of Mansfield,) Feb. 23, 1737, being the first minister of that Society; was frequently interrupted in the discharge of his ministerial duties by ill health, but continued in the pastoral office there, till his death, Jan. 18, 1761. He protested with some other ministers, against Mr. Whitefield, and the Revival of 1740, in an uncandid, ill-natured document, which may be found in Tracy's "Great Awakening," p. 363. His wife Lydia d. March 28, 1749, a. 37. His second wife was Hannah Richards of Milton. His children, by Lydia Jennison, were—that the value and practical usefulness of town and other records are seriously impaired by the small percentage of inaccuracies common in all human works, and of which a large proportion can be rectified by effort and patience. The substantial groundwork of the original entries in the Auburn town books is here supplied, and the addition of the burial ground inscriptions will aid in completing the record of deaths.

In the work of collecting and copying this material I have had the benefit of the services of Mr. George Maynard as a competent assistant. To Mr. Charles E. CLARK:—The misplacing of the name of Mary-Lucinda, daughter of John, Jr. and Sarah Clark, born Nov. 16, 1836, was discovered too late for its insertion in regular order.

HISTORICAL NOTE.

THE Town of Auburn was originally set off from Worcester, Sutton, Leicester and Oxford, and was incorporated on the 10th of April, 1778, with the name of Ward, in honor of General Artemas Ward, of Shrewsbury, a man of great prominence in this region, active as a patriot during the difficulties that caused the separation from the mother country, and receiving on the eve of hostilities the appointment of First Major General in the Revolutionary Army. He was at a later period Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, and afterwards served in Congress. He died in 1800 at the age of seventy-three.

A precinct was organized at this place July 27th, 1773, called the South Parish of Worcester, and three years later the church was formed. In 1777 Rev. Isaac Bailey became the first pastor.

More or less opposition was manifested against the formation of the new township in the several places from which its territory was taken, and committees were chosen to contest the proposed action

Publisher's Note.

The list of Sutton Births, Marriages and Deaths comprised in this volume includes all that were found in the Town Books covering the period from the earliest date there recorded to the end of the year 1849. Some additions have been made from other sources, and these are indicated in each instance by proper reference.

All of the records are condensed in print as much as is consistent with intelligibility, accuracy, and completeness of information. Differences in duplicates, and explanatory or other matter which seemed necessary or desirable, appear in brackets.

Marriages and intentions of marriage are printed under the names of both parties, but the full information concerning each person is given only under his or her name. An asterisk after a marriage indicates that the intention was not found recorded, and in many cases this is accounted for by the fact that neither party belonged in Sutton, and consequently publishment was made elsewhere.

The double date is used in the months of January, February and March prior to 1752 only when it so appears in the original, and instances of the modern form after 1725 are not uncommon.

When places other than Sutton and Massachusetts are named in the original records, they are given in the printed copy.

Mrs Marian O. Shirley
1007 Fredrick Dr So
Indianapolis, IN 46260

Dear Mrs. Shirley:

Please excuse my not reporting to you sooner. Before going on to Ontario Co I wanted to check all possibilities in the Genesee Co. region. I had checked probate recs. at Batavia finding nothing for a Peter Jenison/Jennison but there is a Grantee deed at the Genesee Co Courthouse in 1836 which appeared to be for Peter J. Jr. Will enclose these abstarcts for Jennison for you. I have since checked the Holland Land Co records which are on microfilm at Fredonia, NY in the hope that we could find something earlier for either Peter Jr or Sr. There was one "article" or mortgage for Peter "Jenison" dated 4 June 1821, it was a renewal for an earlier mortgage on the same lot recorded in the County Clerk's office in Batavia in 1836. It would appear we have only one Peter Jenison in Genesee, rather than father and son, that he was JR. And altho Peter Sr does appear on list of Rev soldiers bur. in Ontario Co., I'll enclose copies, his grave is not located and there is a "probably" there I wanted to be sure we didn't miss anything in Genesee Co. and so we didn't embark on a wild goose chase in Ontario Co. In any case we can place Peter Jr near present Castile, NY. Will enclose a plat map. I had hoped we would find Peter Sr in Gen. Co because his grave would have been easier to find at Castile than in Ont. Co.

Enclose copies of the published Rev Patriots in Ontario Co. and the mss from which it was taken from the card file. It appears to have been something a descendant had given to the county historian rather than being the result precise research on his part. It indicated doubt = possible bum stear. It does look as tho that the number before Peter's service refers to a Rev. War pension file number "15-34106" in the National Archives and would confirm his death in Ont. Co. The pension file is another source of good info, it may contain family info not just about his service, as I recall the pension files are available on microfilm in Ont. Co. Any way we are now on the right track.

My time and expenses to date are 3 hrs at the Gen. Co. courthouse Co. Clerk's office and Surrogate; 1 hr at the Co Historians office; and ½ hr office time; with 45 miles travel = gasolene and cost of photocopies your initial retainer is depleted. We are going to find some good answers in Ontario Co., the one thing I'm worried about is that because Peter Sr had a pension there may not be a will or intestate proceeding for him as under the 1818 a man had to be nearly destitute to get one, it was relaxed in 1820, but if he didn't refile = we'll have to see about that. Deeds should tell us exactly when Peter and his family arrived and where he lived = chance of locating his grave. We should find some good stuff about Clark Eldridge as well, Penfield was in Ontario until 1821 when Monroe Co. was formed. If Peter was also in Penfield when he died a very good chance of finding his grave, this may be the reason we have the "?" for him in Ontario Co as to where he is buried. If you would like me to proceed please forward an additional retainer for fifty dollars and I'll proceed accordingly.

I apologize for this long delay in reporting to you, have been running behind all year. Just learned they had the Holland deeds at Fredonia, feared I may have had to go down there but was finally able to get the info needed over the phone.   Thanks for your patience and understanding.

Sincerely,

Roy D. Goold

Publisher's Note.

THE list of Charlton Births, Marriages and Deaths comprised in this volume includes all that were found in the Town Books covering the period from the earliest date there recorded to the end of the year 1849. Baptisms, Marriages and Deaths from the records of the First Church, and Deaths from the gravestone inscriptions in the old Burial Ground have been added to make the record as complete as possible, and these sources are indicated in each instance by proper reference.

All of the records are condensed in print as much as is consistent with intelligibility, accuracy, and completeness of information. Differences in duplicates, and explanatory or other matter which seemed necessary or desirable, appear in brackets.

Marriages and intentions of marriage are printed under the names of both parties, but the full information concerning each person is given only under his or her name. An asterisk after a marriage indicates that the intention was not found recorded, and in many cases this is accounted for by the fact that neither party belonged in Charlton, and consequently publishment was made elsewhere.

The double date is used in the months of January, February and March prior to 1752 only when it so appears in the original, and instances of the modern form after 1725 are not uncommon.

When places other than Charlton and Massachusetts are named in the original records, they are given in the printed copy.

died 25 October 1687 a 102* y, "h Susann" in Haverhill (HvVR 2:472)

Children included Nathaniel^2

(I looked in the MAYFLOWER Indices and found nothing for Richard nor for Susanna; she must have been another Cooke family; may be worth researching).

NATHANIEL^2 SINGLETARY

PEH born 28 Auggust 1644 in Haverhill (M.O.S datum; not in HV VR)

married 22 December 1673 Sarah Belknap (HvVR 2:289)

SARAH BELKNAP, wife of Nathaniel^{2} Singletary

You have furnished a chart, generations back to Britain;
REH No sources.

I did not have time yesterday to tackle; do you have good proofs or shall I try to find? I have no doubt she belonged to the family of Abraham .

Did you find a Belknap genealogy? Did British data come from Waters?

JOHN^3 SINGLETARY (Nathaniel^2 Richard^1)

born 7 May 1675 "s Nathaniel & Sarah" (Haverhill VR I:276) married, he "of Haverhill," 17 December 1700, Mary Grele, "d Andrew" (Salisbury, NA VR p.480)

died

In 1689, at age 14, John was "taken" by the Indians; You cited records you'd found (not attributed) telling that he was taken prisoner with his father, but unlike Nathaniel, John escaped. Shall I try to find more detail on all this?

Children: i. John^4 b. ca 1701 or later?

SINGLETARY

Richard Singletary's chn:

The birthplace for Nathaniel could be wrong--bet it was Salisbury. In re-examining PEH record, I see that he had written Haverhill underneath Richard's place of death....which happened to be the end of the line on which he had written the first child's name.

PEH has these notes on Richard's card: In Salem 1637; owned land Salisbury 1640; Richard was m. before 1639; in Haverhill 1650. If I had thought that through a little better, I'd have realized most of his kids were born in Salisbury. Sorry.

Nathaniel Singletary

PEH apparently found something about Nathaniel's death at the hands of the Indians in "History of Haverhill", p.153. There is a little tiny note by John which says "captured by Ind and escaped." If you can lay your hands on that history...might be fun to see what it says!

John Singletary (m. Mary Greele)

From PEH record of John: John and Mary came from Haverhill to Sutton 1721. In Framingham 1709.
Owned land and water rights at outlet of Singletary Pond and ran 2 mill stones.

Amos Singletary (m. Mary Curtis)

From PEH record: "Amos was the 1st male child born in Sutton." (1721)

"Lived on mill lot at outlet of Singletary Pond. Had no school, but was self taught. Represented his town in Provincial Congress and afterwards in House of Rep. and Senate." ... Is it possible that Amos in the 2nd Continental Congress?

Would like to have other details about Nathaniel's and John's tangle with the Indians. That's the kind of stuff that makes genealogy come to life....My gr.chn. love it!

Amos d. 3 Oct 1806 at 85y 25d, calle "Hon", "s. John and Mary" Sutton VR p. 462 on your p.14.
....doesn't that provide some sort of proof that Amos was the s/o John and Mary Singletary and that he was b. c.1721?
....Maybe the Singletary Mill Pond land records would help.

children of Amos and Mary (Curtis) Singletary b. Sutton...VR to 1849, pub.by Franklin P. Rice, p.159.

Belknap

What can I say? My Belknap records come from PEH! His records refer to NEHGR Apr.1914, pp. 193-5. (Is that New England History and Genealogical Register or something like that?) In looking it all over with a much more experienced eye than I had when I recorded it all on computer, I can see where the connection with Sarah Belknap is very murky. Meantime, you have sent the material from Savage, which doesn't look too promising. Good! That floppy disk is jammed...I can use the space for other lines!

It might be nice to clear up Sarah's identity at some point in the future.

[PEH notes on back of Mehitable's card that "she was insane in later years. She used kindling wood piled in cellar for use in an old fashioned baking oven built into the chimney [on the ground floor, I presume] to build a fire down under the house. She fell into it and burned to death" ...have also been told by another descendant that she burned the house down with her.]

Susanna, Jonathan, b. 17 Jan. 1640; Eunice, 7 Jan. 1642; Nathaniel, 28 Oct. 1644; Lydia, 30 Apr. 1648; and Amos, Apr. 1651. He was a selectman in 1650, tax. decently for the supp. of min. yet gone in 1652 to Haverhill, there, by w. Susanna Cooke, says Barry, had Benjamin, b. 4 Apr. 1656. Coffin says, he had John, that is perhaps the same as Jonathan. Eunice m. at Andover, 6 Jan. 1659, Thomas Eaton. His w. d. 11 Apr. 1682, and he d. 25 Oct. 1687, in the 102d yr. if the repts. may be accept. Richard, New London 1686, wh. may have been s. or gr.s. of the preced. d. 16 Oct. 1711, leav. nine ch. some of wh. were in Carolina, but the only kn. names are Richard, William, Waitstill, and beside a d. wh. m. Samuel Latham.

Sinnet, Sennot, or Sennitt, John, Boston, mariner, s. of Walter, appears to own est. from 1667 to 1676. Walter, Boston, by w. Mary, wh. join. our ch. 23 May 1647, had Mary, b. 19 Nov. 1640; Eliz. 23 June 1642, d. soon; John, 10 July 1643; and on Sunday aft. the adm. of his w. had bapt. Mary, John, and Stephen, the last "being 1 yr. 6 mos. and a. 18 days old," and he d. at 10 yrs.; Joseph, 12 Mar. 1648, a. 9 days; Sarah, 28 Apr. 1650; Thomas, 28 Mar. 1652; and Isaac, b. 22 Sept. bapt. 1 Oct. 1654, d. in few days. Mary m. 26 Nov. 1661, John Sparke.

Sisson, George, Portsmouth, R. I. m. 1 Aug. 1667, Sarah, d. of Thomas Lawton, had Eliz. b. 18 Aug. 1669; Mary, 18 Oct. 1670; Ann, 17 Feb. 1672; Hope, 24 Dec. 1674; Richard, 10 Sept. 1676; Ruth, 5 May 1680; George, 23 Mar. 1683; Abigail, 23 Mar. 1685;

Thomas, 10 Sept. 1686; John, 26 June 1688; and James, 26 July 1690; his w. d. 17 July 1718; and he d. 10 Sept. foll. aged 74. His eldest d. Eliz. m. Jeremiah Clark. James, Dartmouth 1684, was, perhaps, br. of the preced.

Siverns, John, Lynn, had John, b. 22 Mar. 1684. Perhaps this may be Severance of Salisbury.

Skate, John, Weymouth 1658, is nam. by Farmer; but I find no such name, unless it mean the next.

Skeath, John, Boston 1674, liv. long, as from his will of 6 May 1700, pro. 22 Jan. 1708, is clearly discern. It gives to w. Sarah, ds. Sarah Bradshaw, Rebecca Allen, Mary, and Joanna S. beside gr.ch. Joseph, and Hannah, and makes w. and d. Mary excors. See Scathe.

Skeel, John, Stratford, m. Hannah, d. of Roger Terrill of the same, had John, and Hannah, bapt. 10 Nov. 1678, of wh. John d. soon; John, again, Nov. 1679; Thomas, 23 Apr. 1682; Eliz. 20 Apr. 1683; Abigail, 9 May 1686; and Ephraim, July 1689; had rem. to Woodbury 1682; perhaps even bef. any of these ch. Hannah m. 8 Mar. 1697, Benjamin Hicock.

Skeeth, William, of Charlestown, or Woburn, d. a. 1672, for his inv. was then ret. in Middlesex by Lawrence Dowse and Josiah Convers, wh. were of those two towns.

Skelling, Thomas, Salem 1643, had then, says Felt, a gr. of ld. But prob. that was inadeq. inducem. to leave Gloucester where he had liv. some yrs. and by w. Deborah had Deborah, b. 22 Aug. 1640, or 1648, rem. perhaps, to Falmouth 1651, and own. est. in Maine; but was soon back, yet d. at F. 1667; in his will, of 14 Nov. 1666, nam. s. Thomas and John. See Skilling. Thomas, Falmouth, eldest s. of the preced. says Babson, m. 1654, Mary Lewis, d. of George of the same, had John, and Benjamin, and d. at Salem, 30 Dec. 1676. His wid. m. Jotham Lewis; and next a. Wilkins, says Mr. Willis, and in 1732 was of Salem 78 yrs old.

Skelton, Benjamin, Salem, nam. 1639, when his s. John was bapt. and Nathaniel, Salem 1648, when his s. John was bapt. are in the list of sett. but not ch. mem. Strange as it seems, no more is told of either; and to larger or less credulity must be left the opin. whether one or both were ch. of Rev. Samuel. Samuel, Salem, came from Co. Lincoln, in 1629, arr. with w. and ch. three or four, in the George, 29 June, in co. with Samuel Sharpe, hav. sail. 4 May from Isle of Wight. He was b. 1584, bred at Clare Hall, Cambr. Univ. where he had his degr. 1611 and 1614; nam. by the Gov. and Comp. at London to be of the Counc. to Capt. Endicot, wh. they appoint. Gov. of the Planta. as they heard that E. had "formerly receiv. much good by his ministry;"

Only the first two of the above names are found on record. Very little is known of Benjamin or of his descendants. He probably left town very soon after the birth of his son Benjamin. According to Dea. Leland, "It appears by Sibley papers in the hands of Nathaniel Sibley, 2d, that he was, at one time, of Ellington, Ct. The following scrap is found in the handwriting of Mr. Baldwin: 'Benjamin Sibley was one of the original brothers and lived in Sutton a few years when he went to Union, Ct., and died there or at Ashford.'"

Aaron Sibley, his grandson, was a representative of Westfield in 1827 or 1828.

Of Jonathan, one of the original six brothers, very little is known. His name is entered as one of the thirty proprietors of the four thousand acres. He was the owner of "lot 7" in the "eight lots." He probably left town at an early date.

Martha Sibley married Samuel Dagget, April 10, 1740. There is no means of ascertaining whose daughter she was.

Mary Sibley (parentage unknown), married Rogers Dudley, May 31, 1743.

AMOS SINGLETARY, ESQ.

Amos Singletary was the son of John, who settled on the mill lot at the outlet of Singletary pond.

He was the first male child born in town. It is said that he never attended school a day in his life. The rudiments of reading, writing and arithmetic, were taught him at home. He made the most of his opportunities, and by patient application, became a well informed man.

He was of quick perception, sound judgment and sterling integrity. For four years, during the revolutionary war, he represented the town in the provincial Congress, and after the formation of the State government, he was for four years in the house of representatives and several years in the senate.

He was also a justice of the peace, and a justice of the quorum, of which there were two in the county. One of the duties of the latter office was to administer the debtor's oath to men put in jail for debt.

Esq. Singletary was often sent for to perform that service, as his colleague, who resided in Worcester, refused to do it without the fee in hand. Often in the evening, after his day's work was done, did he ride to Worcester, moved with compassion for the poor debtor, and administer the oath, taking for his pay promises which were seldom fulfilled.

Mr. Singletary was an earnest Christian. His grandson, Rev. S. A. Dwinnel, says his conversion was brought about through the influence of a young lady, Mary Curtis, to whom he was engaged. She was one of the subjects of the religious interest which attended the preaching of Jonathan Edwards, of Northhampton, who visited Sutton in February 1742. They both united with Dr. Hall's church at the same time, and were dismissed with others, to form the church in the north parish, in which they are spoken of as pillars.

The following anecdote, furnished by Rev. Geo. Allen, Worcester, who knew both the persons referred to, illustrates Mr. Singletary's quick insight into character, and his concise method of making its defects manifest.

"During a season of revival in the north parish, Mr. Samuel Waters, a manufacturer of hoes in what is now Millbury, being under concern of mind, and seeing Mr. Singletary approaching, rushed out of his shop, and called out, 'O Squire! O Squire! what shall I do to be saved?' The Squire scarcely stopped the horse he was riding as he replied, 'Put more steel in your hoes.'"

He had a family of nine children, all girls but two. All sustained honored positions in life and the church, except his youngest son, who was a profligate, and brought much trouble to his parents. After having a large family, which grew up and left him, his son Amos became a town pauper of Millbury. For twenty or thirty years he never took a bible in his hand or heard a prayer if he could avoid it. Mr. Dwinnel says:

"When I was at home on a visit, from Philips academy, Andover, in 1833, I visited him for the purpose of religious conversation. He was living in an irreligious family, and was then about eighty years of age. I found abundant evidence, from talking with him, that God had met him there and changed his heart. He showed me a bible that he had obtained and read in every day. He lived some years afterward, giving evidence of the great change. God does indeed remember his covenant with his people. How precious the truth!"

STOCKWELL.

It is a tradition among the Stockwells in this country, that the ancester of those who bear the name came from Scotland; and, that he was enticed on board a vessel about to sail, and on his arrival, in accordance with the law of the time, was apprenticed for the payment of his passage. After serving his time, he followed for a few years a sea-faring life, and finally settled in Ipswich; married, and had five sons: William, John, Jonathan, Ebenezer and David.

All these sons came to Sutton. William located on land adjoining Benjamin Marsh on the west, known later as the Graves' place. There is no record of his children. He had, however, William, and Elizabeth, who married Daniel Kenney, August 28, 1727.

SARAH Belknap,

See page from Savage I:158.

Let's say Sarah, wife of Nathaniel^{2} Singletary, was born around the same time, or a few years after his births, in the late 1640's. She was then probably the daughter of Abraham the first.

Savage wrote that "Lewis..gives him s. Abraham, and Jeremy. But good reason may easily be found for giv(ing) him other ch(ildren certain(ly?) Joseph, and Samuel, besides, prob. Hannah...." So Savage wasn't satisfied with the first two,only.

We need deeds and probate for these people!

While Sarah could have belonged to another family, all those of the name in Savage apparently belonged in some way to the family of Abraham^{1}.

Emerson Family.

Mr. P. H. Emerson spent three years in searching the records of all the counties of England, to find Emerson families. The results he published in "The English Emersons," London, 1898, 168 + cxxxv pages. From these records it appears that Thomas Emerson, son of Robert and Susan (Crabbe) Emerson, bp. 1584, came to Ipswich in 1638, from Bishop's Stortford, Co. Herts.* His wife was Elizabeth Brewster, married in 1611. ["The English Emersons," pp. 153–9.]

Michael and Robert Emerson appeared in Essex Co., Mass., about the middle of the 17th century. They married daughters of the early settlers and became the ancestors of the Haverhill Emersons. The name Emerson was found in most of the counties of England. The names Michael, Robert, and Thomas Emerson were common in the county of Lincoln, in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, and the name Michael was seldom found elsewhere.

A study of the abstracts from original records printed in "The English Emersons," and the pedigree inserted opposite p. 61, shows, notwithstanding the opinion expressed on p. 157, that the Ipswich and the Haverhill families came from different counties in England, the former from Herts, the latter from Lincoln. The records found in various parts of the book yield the following, after eliminating some obvious errors. The baptisms and marriages are from p. cxv.

Thomas Emerson, of "Cadney and Howsam," Co. Lincoln, England, m. Aug. 10, 1612, Margaret Froe. He was the son of Alexander and Janet (Hornsey) Emerson, of Serby [will of Alexander proved 1605–6,† p. xiii; also Hist. Gen. Reg. vol. 50, p. 527; that of Janet proved 1612, p. xxx]. Thomas was the grandson of George Emerson, of Serby [will proved 1574, p. xxx]. All the above belong to the numerous family of Lincoln Emersons, in which names are often repeated.

The will of Thomas "of Howsham, in the parish of Cadney," "yeoman," dated May 20, 1656, proved Sept. 29, 1661[p. xxx], gave only £5 each to Michael and Robert, but £20 each to Edward and Thomas, while John, the eldest son, was made sole executor. The name of "Daur. Elizth. Lilforth" is mentioned in the notes between the names of "Son Michaell" and "Son Robert Emerson"; but no mention is there made of the fact that all three were in America at that time. The wills of the three elder sons [John,

* It was formerly supposed that Thomas Emerson, of Ipswich, came from Sedgefield parish, Co. Durham, Eng., but the above is now thought to be "more accurate."

† This will shows that the Haverhill settlers had uncles in England named Michael, Robert, John, and George, Emerson.

This year there were forty-three freemen in town, nineteen of whom had taken the oath of fidelity. [*] Names against which no amount is placed, are those of persons for whom we can find no record of a house lot being laid out. Some of them, if not all, probably purchased the right of others to lands.

[†] We do not know whether these pounds were the English pounds sterling (sixteen ounces of silver) or the pound of Troy weight, (sixty-two shillings) but presume they were the latter. If so, each pound was equivalent to $5.33.

Among the early settlers, were four brothers by the name of Ayer, John, Robert, Thomas, and Peter. The former settled near the house of the late Capt. John Ayer, 2d, who was the sixth generation who lived on the same spot. The latter settled in the northwesterly part of the town, in the West Parish. Their descendants are very numerous, and are scattered throughout nearly every State in the Union. In 1700, it was supposed that nearly one third of the inhabitants of the town were of that name. They were mostly farmers.[*]

At a meeting of the town January 1, 1651, "It was agreed upon that such as have land in the plain or below the plain, butting upon the great river, should have liberty to make use of the bank next the river for a fence for the space of four years: and also such as have land over the little river, west, shall have the same liberty so far as Thomas Hale's lot.

The plain here alluded to, was the one east of the village. Under date of January 12, 1651, we find the following: — "It was this day ordered that the ox-common which was formerly an ox-common, shall be for the use of them who live upon the east side of the mill brook, and for as many as will join with them."

"Ordered that they that live upon the west side of the mill brook, shall have liberty to have an ox-common westward for them, and as many as will join with them, which common is to be laid out in a convenient place, as shall be judged meet by the major part of the town.

That the town were anxious to have their numbers increased may be judged from the following vote of the same year: — "It was this day agreed that James Pecker should be an inhabitant with us, and that he shall have a four acre lot with accommodations proportionable to it, which lot is to be bought of Bartholomew Heath for eight pounds. James Pecker doth promise to come and be an inhabitant with us by June 1653." We

[*] The following notes, taken from the Essex County Records and papers, will doubtless be of interest to the many persons of that name in the town: — 1656. John Ayer, or Eyer, of Haverhill, made a will March 12, 1656-7. He died March 31, 1657, and his will was proved October 6th of the same year. His children were John, Nathaniel, Hannah, Rebeca, Mary, Robert, Thomas, Obadiah and Peter. He left a wife, named Hannah. 1668. Mary Ayers, aged 34; and Samuel Ayers, aged 45. 1671. Inventory taken of the estate of Benjamin Ayers. 1672. John Ayer, late of Ipswich, was now of Quaboag. (There was a John Ayres in Ipswich as early as 1648.) 1679. John Ayer, or Eyer, late of Haverhill, now of Ipswich. Had a wife Mary. 1693. Samuel Ayers, aged 43 years, 1704. Jonathan Ayer, aged 65 years. 1711. Robert Ayres, of Haverhill, aged 86 years.

In 1754, Major Ebenezer Ayer, of Haverhill, married Hannah, widow of James Scammon, of Saco, Me., where he continued to reside. He had several children.— Vide Hist. Saco and Biddeford, p. 268.

For the names of many others of this numerous family, see the Appendix to this volume.

"to keep ye heard faithfully as a heard ought to be kept; if any be left on the Sabbath when ye towne worship, they who keepe are to goe ye next day, doing their best indeavore to find them." He was not permitted to turn his flock into the pasture on the Sabbath, until the "second beating of ye drum."

A lot of land not exceeding four-score acres, was the same year granted to the proprietors of the saw-mill, so long as they kept it in use.

It was voted that hereafter the selectmen should "give in their account what they have received, and what they have disbursed." The voters evidently wished to know where their money went, in which laudable curiosity they have a very few imitators at the present day.

Among the note-worthy incidents of this year, may be mentioned the case of Robert Pike, of Salisbury. The Court had prohibited Joseph Peasley and Thomas Macy, of Salisbury, from exhorting the people on the Sabbath, in the absence of a minister. Pike declared that "such persons as did act in making that law, did break their oath to the country, for it is against the liberty of the country, both civil and ecclesiatical." For expressing himself in this manner, he was disfranchised by the General Court, and heavily fined. At the next May Court, a petition was presented from a large number of the inhabitants of Hampton, Salisbury, Newbury, Haverhill, and Andover, praying that Pike's sentence might be revoked.[°]

The Court was highly indignant that "so many persons should combine together to present such an unjust and unreasonable request," and appointed a commission to call the petitioners together "and require a reason of their very unjust request." At the next November Court, orders were issued to summon sixteen of the petitioners to give bonds in the sum of ten pounds each to appear and answer for their offence before the County Court. None of the Haverhill signers were however included in the order. They had acknowledged their offence. Three years afterward, Pike "humbly desired the Court, his fine being paid, to release him from the other part of his sentence," which it was pleased to do. The whole case is an instructive one, and throws much light on the public religious opinions of the times.

At a town meeting, held February 9, 1654, liberty was granted to Stephen Kent to place a wear in Little River, to catch alewives, or any other fish, if he would sell to the inhabitans of the town "what alewives they stood in need of." This is the first notice we have of these fisheries, which were afterward carried on to a considerable extent.

At the May session of the General Court, a new petition was received from Haverhill, touching the bounds between that town and Salisbury, as a "great mistake" was made in the previous running of the line. The Court, after hearing both parties, appointed a committee to look into the matter thoroughly. At the next Court the committee made their return, which, as a matter of curiosity as well as interest, we copy entire: —

[*] This was probably the house Duston sold to Peter Green, in 1676.

† As Duston was married December, 1677, it is probable this house was built in the summer of that year, and was the one in which he resided at the time his wife was taken prisoner, in 1697.

The better sort of houses one hundred and fifty to one hundred and seventy-five years ago, were two stories high, with upper story jutting out a foot or so over the lower. The roofs were generally high and steep, and hipped, or gambreed. The frames were of white oak, and much larger than used in our day, and the beams of each finished room were left considerably in sight. The windows were from two and a half to three feet long, one and a half to two wide, with squares like the figure of a diamond, set in lead lines, and from three to four inches long. These windows were sometimes entire and sometimes in halves, and opened outwardly on hinges. They were fashionable until after about 1734. Those with four by six glass succeeded; then five by seven; then six by eight; then seven by nine, set in wooden frames, — which began to be used about 1750.

Lime-stone was little known, and less manufactured, for more than a century after the first settlement of the town, and the walls of houses were daubed with clay, mixed with straw, or plastered with a sort of lime made in great part of clam-shells. Paper was not put on walls until about a hundred years ago, and very little until 1783, — whitewash being used in its stead.

Each side of a dwelling had bricks laid against the inner partition, being then covered with clay, and then with clay-boards, (since corrupted to clap-boards), thus making them comfortable in cold weather, as well as durable. While the better kind of buildings were shingled on the top, others, such as cottages of one story, had thatched roofs, until after about 1690. The latter was an imitation of a custom in England, where it still exists in country villages.

Previous to 1700, very few if any houses had more than one chimney. This was in the middle, and of very large dimensions; and, besides other fire-places, had a mammoth one for the kitchen, where a whole family could sit conveniently on the two forms, or "settles," placed in the corners. The writer distinctly remembers sitting in such a fire-place, gazing at the sky above, and watching the upward curling smoke from the huge logs before him. Thirty cords of fire-wood annually was not then thought extravagant for a family.

Paint was but little used for houses, either inside or outside, before about 1734, and even fifty years later it was not common for even the "best room" to be thus ornamented, much less the whole house. Very few houses were painted outside as late as 1800.

Mirick says, that the first militia company was organized in town this year (1662). We think he is mistaken, as a military organization most certainly existed in town as early as 1648, and the laws of the colony re-

From the Journal of Captain John Hull, Treasurer of the Colony, under date of August 24, 1676, we copy the following list of soldiers from this town, and the sum paid to each.

The following extract from the colonial records, presents a vivid picture of the anxiety and distress among the people of Massachusetts, on account of the bold and daring determination of Phillip and his allies to extirpate the English. The proposition to erect a fortification of such magnitude, shows the desperation to which they were reduced, and the dangers to which they were exposed: —

“Att a court held in Boston March 23d 1676. Whereas several considerable persons have made application to us and proposed it as a necessary expedient for the public welfare and particularly for the security of the whole county of Essex and part of Middlesex from inroads of the common enemy, that a line or fence of stockades or stones (as the matter best suiteth) be made about eight feet high extending from Charles River where it is navigable unto Concord river from George Farley's house, in Billerica, which fence this council is informed is not in length above twelve miles, a good part whereof is already done by large ponds that will conveniently fall into the line and so forth, and so forth, by which means the whole tract will be environed for the security and safety (under God) of the people, their houses, goods and cattel from the rage and fury of the enemy.” * * * *

The court thereupon ordered one able and fit man from each of the included towns, to meet at Cambridge on March 31st, to survey the ground, estimate the expense, &c., and report in writing how it might be prosecuted and effected, and what each town should pay, &c. Nearly all the towns made a report.

The peace proved to be of short duration. On the 12th of the following July, Richard Saltonstall of this town, and others of Bradford, and Andover, petitioned the General Court for “more provision for protection on account of present appearance and warning of danger.” In reply, the Court ordered one-fifth of the men to be kept continually on scout, taking turns, so that all should bear their part!

Hostilities commenced soon after, and were continued the remainder of that year, and also during the following year; in which period the Indians ravaged the country, and greatly reduced the eastern settlements.

In the spring of 1678, commissioners were appointed to settle a formal treaty of peace with the Indian chiefs, — which was done at Casco. Thus an end was finally put to a tedious and distressing war.

Fortunately for our town, it was not attacked during this war, though the inhabitants lived in continual expectation of one, and the most active and vigorous measures were adopted for defence. Houses were garrisoned, and armed scouts were kept on the watch for the enemy night and day, during the whole time.* At this distant day, we can have but a faint idea of the anxieties and hardships, the flickering hopes and gloomy fears, of those long and dreary three years of Indian warfare.

After the ratification of peace, commerce began again to flourish, and the population of the country rapidly increased. New towns were settled, and the colonists, no longer in daily and hourly fear of being startled by the war-whoop of the merciless savage, once more rested in present security.

* As late as 1684, thirty-five troopers were kept constantly on the scout, on the borders of Haverhill, Amesbury, and Salisbury; and a foot company was kept in readiness for service, in each of those towns.

John Keyzar, to whom land was granted in 1674, on condition that he came and "set up his trade of tanner" in town, (which land was "confirmed to him" in 1682) made application this year for liberty to sell it; but the town informed him that "they did and do expect the conditions therein mentioned to be attended, or else the said John may leave the same to the Town, with the buildings and improvements by him made thereon, to the Town for public use."

The Town Records of this year, for the first time, state that the meetings were called by the "writ of the selectmen, published and placed on file." They were published by affixing a copy of the warrant to the door of the meeting house.

For ten years preceding this, we find no allusion in the Town Records to the subject of a school, and only one elsewhere,—that in the Ipswich Court Records of 1681. From this, and the record of the meeting mentioned below, we infer that there was no regular school in town during those years.

On the 9th of November, of this year, a meeting was called, "in order to a supply and the providing a fit person to keep school in this Town, and make it his only employ to instruct the children or young men, or any of the inhabitants of Haverhill in reading, and in writing, and in cyphering," and the selectmen were voted full power to provide such a person, and agree with him to keep school until the next annual meeting, provided they did not agree "to give him on the public account more than Four pounds in corn till that time." Under the same date, we find the following agreement, which is well worth preserving: —

"We whose names are underwritten have agreed with Mr James Chadwick to keep the school, to endeavour to teach such as shall resort to him, as they shall desire to read, or write, or cypher, or all of them, until the next annual meeting in February next: For which service of his he shall be paid by the town in general three pounds in corn, besides what he shall have, or agree with the scholars for; or their parents, or masters; or for want of agreement the said Mr Chadwick in his demands not to exceed what usually is paid in other places for schooling, viz: To have by the week — For a Reader 00:04, & for a writer 00:06. At the next annual meeting, the selectmen were directed "to agree with Mr Chadwick, or any other person, to make it his employ to keep school in Haverhill for the year ensuing."

In the spring of 1686, a road was laid out from Rowley to Haverhill. It was laid out eight rods wide.

In answer to a petition from the Selectmen, the Court empowered them to "bind out young ones into sarvice,"— provided their indentures met the approval of "worshipful Major Saltonstall."

At the annual meeting, Daniel Ela proffered to sell his housing and land by the meeting house" to the town for a parsonage, and take as part pay, the house and land the town had previously purchased of Wm Starlin; but, after much discourse, the town refused to treat with him. At the same time, John Gild charged Lieut. Johnson, in open town meeting, with attempting to cheat him, by altering the bounds of land at Flaggy meadow, and taking in "near 40 or 50 acres." As the Lieutenant "confessed in part," the town chose a committee to look into the matter. The Lieutenant was not, however, the only one in town who wanted more land than belonged to him, as Serg't John Page and Mr. Simon Wainwright, "by virtue of an order from the Selectmen," the previous year, "to search after and find out them that had trespassed upon the Town's ways and common lands by their fencing of them in," gave in the following names: — Joseph Greelee, Joseph Peasely, Saml Pearson, Saml Shepherd, Daniel Ela, Edwd Brumidge, Sergt Johnson, Peter Patie, Lt. Browne or S Ford, Benj Singletery, John Gild, Robt Swan, Stephen Davis, Dan: Hendrick, Jno Davis, Edwd Clarke, Stephen Dow, Abra. Belknap, Thos Davis, John Whittier.

But even this large array of names did not include the whole, for at the same meeting, the Recorder informs us, "Robt Swan sen presented a motion to the Town for buying of their own lands which they had purchased of the Indians, and had grants for from the General Court: and was laid out in particular lots by the Town's allotment." Swan's motion was, that, —

"Whereas there was a certain tract of land purchased of Pumpasanoway alais Old Will, an Indian, by John Endicot of Boston, Gentn, eldest son to Gov Endicot, The which land was sold by Jno Endicot to Walter Barefoot, Esq, as appears by firm deeds under hand and seal, from one to the other of the above said conveyors, This land being part of it in the bounds of Haverhill near Spicket River. It being now in my hands to dispose of as I can make it appear, I think it expedient that a proposition be made to the town in the first place. That if they please to buy that the modesty with which they generally treated their captive women. We do not recollect of but one instance[°] where they attempted to abuse their chastity in word or action.[†]

Haverhill was a frontier town for nearly seventy years, and but few towns suffered so severely from the Indians. At this period we can have but a faint conception of the sufferings of the inhabitants. Surrounded with an immense and mostly unexplored forest — thinly scattered over a large tract of land — and constantly exposed to the attacks of savage hordes, are circumstances which have made us wonder, why they should continue to march onward and onward into the wilderness, terrific for its extent, and unfurl the banner of civilization under the very shadow of the enemy's wigwam. The contests between them and the savages, were not like those between civilized nations; but it was a war for extermination on one side, characterized with acts of the basest cruelty and revenge for defence on the other. The foemen frequently fought hand to hand; the bloody frays were frequent and sometimes long.

The Indians made their attacks slyly, and cautiously approached their enemy by skulking behind the intervening objects, until they came so near that they felt perfectly sure of their victim. At other times, they would fall upon the inhabitants before the break of day, and barbarously slaughter them while they were unprepared to defend themselves. The people always went armed to their daily labor, and on the sabbath they were seen on their way to Church, with a psalm-book in one hand, and a gun, loaded and primed, in the other. But even then, while kneeling beneath the roof of the sanctuary, they were not safe; if they went into the fields at noontide, with their spades and mattocks, their foes were behind them; if they slept within their dwellings when the sun had gone down, the darkness would not protect them; but ere the light had stole upon the east, their blood, and the blood of their beloved, might pool together upon their hearths. In summer and winter, at the budding and searing of the leaf, they were alike exposed to hardships and to death.

Some of the most heroic deeds accomplished by the inhabitants of this town, were performed by women, — by those whose limbs were not made to

[°] This was in the case of Mrs. Hannah Duston, when her captors told her that she, and her companions, must be stripped naked, and run the gauntlet.

[†] Testimonies in favor of the savages, in this particular, are very frequent. Mary Rowlandson, who was taken prisoner at Lancaster, in 1675, says in her narrative, (page 55), — "I have been in the midst of these roaring lions and savage bears, that feared neither God nor man, nor the devil, by day and night, alone and in company, sleeping all sorts together, and yet not one of them ever offered me the least abuse of unchastity in word or action." Elizabeth Hanson, who was captured in Dover, in 1724, says in her narrative, that "the Indians are very civil towards their captive women, not offering any incivility by any indecent carriage." Charlevoix, speaking of the Indians of Canada, says, (letter 7) "there is no example that any have taken the least liberty with the French women, even when they were their prisoners."

wield the weapons of war,—whose hearts could never exult in a profusion of blood,—and whose sphere of usefulness, of honor and of glory, was in the precincts of the domestic circle."

Dover was the first to suffer. On the night of the 27th of June, the garrisons were attacked, twenty-three persons killed, and twenty-nine captured. Before the neighboring people could be collected, the Indians had withdrawn, with their captives and their plunder, toward Canada.

In August, a party of Indians fell upon the settlement at Oyster River (Durham, N. H.) and killed eighteen persons.

On the 13th of the same month, a small party made their appearance in the northerly part of this town, and killed Daniel Bradley. They then went to the field of Nathaniel Singletary, near by, where he and his oldest son were at work. They approached in their slow and serpent-like manner, until they came within a few rods, when they shot Singletary, who fell and died on the spot; his son attempted to escape, but was quickly overtaken and made prisoner. The Indians then scalped Singletary, and commenced a hasty retreat; but their prisoner soon eluded their vigilance, and returned to his home, on the same day, to make glad the hearts of his afflicted relatives. Nathaniel Singletary was a "squatter" on the parsonage lands. The marks of the cellar of his house are still to be seen, on the land now owned by Benjamin Kimball, on the Parsonage Road — a short distance northwest from the gate.

Bradley was killed on the "Parsonage Road," not far from the present Atkinson Depot.[°]

About the same time, two men were also killed at Andover.

These forays caused the inhabitants of the town again to appeal to the General Court, for assistance in the work of watchfulness, and defence,[†] and on the 29th of the same month, the "Ipswich Horse" were ordered to this town, as a place of rendezvous for forces going to meet the enemy.

The savages again made their appearance, on the 17th of the following October, when they wounded and made prisoner of Ezra Rolfe,[‡] who died three days after being taken.

[°] On the 30th of September, 1690, the following petition of his son, Daniel, was addressed to the Court: "To the honord cortt now siting att ipswige this may signify to your honors that whereas by the prouvidence of God my father Daniel Bradly was slaine by the hand of the heathen and left no will as to the deposing of his outward estatte I request his brother Joseph may be appointed administrator.

DANIEL BRADLEY."(1)

This request was granted.

(1) This name does not appear in the Town Records among the children of the above Daniel Bradley.

[†] Men had been previously stationed in town, as garrison guards; but in July, (22d) a part of them (those from Rowley) had been ordered home, on account of the "busy season of the year."—Hist. Rowley.

[‡] Rolfe lived not far from the present North Parish Meeting-house.

William Starlin, besides what was otherwise appointed him for his annual salary. It was also voted to lay him out, with all convenient speed, ten acres of good meadow, for his free use while he remained their minister.

We have already alluded to the charter received in 1692. It was a far different instrument from the colonial charter of 1629, and effected a thorough revolution in the country. The form of government, the powers of the people, and the entire foundation and objects of the body politic, were placed upon a new basis.

Sir William Phipps, the first governor of the province under the new charter, arrived at Boston on the 14th of May, 1692. Writs were immediately issued for a general assembly, which convened in the following month, and the government was duly inaugurated.

These changes in the government of the province, necessitated corresponding changes in the organization of towns, and, accordingly, at the next annual meeting of this town, several new officers were chosen, and the name of the town Recorder was changed to Town Clerk.

The following is a list of the first board of town officers under the new charter: —

At this meeting, Joseph Peasely was granted the privilege of erecting a sawmill "at the head of east meadow river upon the stream by or near Brandy Brow." The location selected was the one still occupied, and known as "Peaslee's Mills." It is now, and we believe has most of the time, since 1693, been owned by persons of that name.

We notice that more business relating to lands, and similar matters, was done by the town this year, than for several years previously, which indicates a returning confidence, and prosperity. No allusions are made to the Indians in the records, and we do not find any mention of persons being killed by them, this year, in the vicinity, except Jonathan Franklin in this town, and one person in Dover.

May 8th, a town meeting was called, "for the people to join with the church and take care for the providing necessaries for Mr Rolf's ordination in office in this town." After choosing a Moderator, "the Town resolved to stop in the proceedings till they knew what Mr Ward would abate of his yearly maintanance." The following proposal from him, dated November 13, 1692, was then read : —

"In answer to the Town's proposal to me to know what I would abate of my yearly maintenance, and upon what terms they should be with me in case they got another minister to help with me in the ministry, I grant

In case the Church and Town do procure another Minister to be settled in office in the work of the ministry in Haverhill ; Then from that time and forward I will abate to the Town of what they ought to pay to me by Covenant and Town orders, all, excepting only Twenty pounds in Corn, and Fifty cords of current merchantable cord wood, to be paid as followeth, annually, during my life ; viz.

Ten pounds in merchantable Wheat, and Ten pounds in merchantable Indian, and Fifty cords of Oak and Walnut wood, to be laid in at my house, and corded by one thereto appointed at the Town's charges ; for time as followeth, viz :

Half in October, annually ; and the other Half in February annually.

Provided that all arrears be truly paid me, and that myself and estate I be exempted from all rates ; and that the Town do appoint one or two men to attend at my house upon a set day to receive and take account of what shall be brought in, and set the price thereof if it be not merchantable, that so it come not in pitiful driblets as formerly.

And in case the conditions be not performed within the year, by the 2d of February annually ; then the whole Sixty pounds to be paid annually, according to town orders already made, and so proportionably.

John Ward."

After this letter was read, the meeting chose a committee of four, "to go and see what Mr Ward will abate of his annual covenanted mainte-a full vote, decided in the negative. It was then proposed, "whether the next meeting house for this Town, when built, shall be set upon the Common land near John Keyzar's & Lieut Johnson's new dwelling places." This was decided "plentifully in the affirmative," only Captain Browne, John Whittier, and Samuel Currier dissenting. It was then voted "that a new meeting house shall be built forthwith, with what speed may be," and a committee was chosen to "treat with men abroad" about doing the work, and report their proposals to the town.

The next we hear of the matter, is in May of the next year, when a meeting was called to see whether the town would build a new meeting-house, or repair the old one.

They voted to build a new one, and chose a committee "to look out a workman that can & will engage to do the work by the lump, or great, for money." They were "to look out & view some meeting houses for dimensions," and then propose the work to some person or persons, either at home or abroad-

On the 28th of July, the committee reported that they had "been abroad at several towns, taking dimensions of several meeting houses, and having an account of the cost of them," and "after bartering with divers workman," found Sergeant John Haseltine "the most inclinable to build of any one." Haseltine offered to build a meeting-house fifty feet long, forty-two feet wide, and eighteen feet stud, "finishing the same within & without, with seats, pulpit, galleries, windows, doors, floors, & stairs," after the pattern of the Beverly meeting-house, and doing the sides after the style of the Reading meeting-house, finding all material. for four hundred pounds, money. After a long debate about the place for the house to stand, and the price proposed, the dimensions proposed were accepted, and the meeting closed without further action.

Nothing more was done about the matter until April 10, 1697, when another meeting was called for that special purpose. This time, the town voted that "there be a meeting house forthwith framed," and chose a committee to agree with Sergeant John Haseltine, or any other man, about the work. They were to agree for the whole work and material, even "to turning of the key," and were limited to four hundred pounds in money. The house was to have "a Turret for a bell," and it was agreed to set it "at the place by Lieut John White's and Mr Samuel Dalton's."

But the end was not yet. In June, another meeting was called to consider the committee's report. After "much discourse and difference about the place where the new meeting house should be erected," it was voted to call another meeting of the town before deciding the matter. Accordingly, on the 5th of July, the inhabitants again assembled, to consider the vexed question. Upon the question of location for the new meeting house, "paper votes were called for," and with the following result[°]: —

> "For the old place that now is 25†
> For the common land near Keyzar's 53."

Paper votes were then called for, in choosing a new committee to go on with the work, and Captain Samuel Ayer, Corporal Peter Ayer, and Ensign John Page, were declared chosen. The committee were then granted full powers, within the previously mentioned limits, as to cost.

So strong, however, appears to have been the opposition to the new location, that the matter of building progressed very slowly, and one year after the above meeting, (July 4, 1698,) another was called "by warrant from a Justice of the Peace," on petition of eight of the inhabitants, who desired that a committee might be chosen "to hear all pleas on both sides, and determine where the new frame should be raised." In this request, thirty-three more joined. The Moderator then called for the names of those opposed to having such a commitee, "which was drawn and brought in," and, being counted, numbered sixty-three names; upon which he declared against having any such committee, and the meeting dissolved.

Summer passed, autumn came and went, and when winter again approached, the work on the new meeting house had progressed so far that it was, by many, thought advisable to meet in it for worship.

A meeting was therefore called by the selectmen, to consider "whether the people should meet this winter at the old meeting house, or at that which is of new erected at Widow Keyzar's." "Votes were called for by personal appearance and entering their names," and "thirty four persons entered their names for their meeting at the new house as soon as the glass windows are finished & set up," while eighteen persons voted for continu-died July 28, 1748, and his descendants are to this day among the most prominent and influential citizens of Concord.

This petition of Captain Eastman, is the first mention we can find of the commerce of Haverhill, or "trading by sea;" though it hardly seems probable that he was the pioneer in that direction. And yet, there are strong reasons for believing that he was the first who made it a business. The sugar and wine, for Mr. Gardner's ordination, were brought from Boston, on horseback, by Deacon White; the lime for plastering the parsonage house, in 1719, was hauled from Newbury, by oxen; and the nails for the watch-house were brought from Ipswich, on horseback. These small matters, and many similar that might be mentioned, taken in connection with the silence of the records, in regard to the navigation of the Merrimack, favor the supposition, that, up to this time, but little use had been made of the river for commercial purposes.

The lots in the fifth division of land, were drawn November 20th, 1721, and, as showing who, or rather whose representatives, were the commoners at this time, the list is well worth inserting in this place:—

The fact that all these names, except seven,[*] are to be found in the records within three years from the date of the Indian deed, and before the town was incorporated, shows most clearly who were at this time, considered to be the proprietors of the undivided lands in the town. They were the heirs and assigns of the original purchasers. Those to whom lands had been granted since that time, were considered to have no further rights than had been granted them. That is, they could only claim the amount of land that the proprietors had specifically granted them. "The inhabitants of Pentucket," — their ancestors, — had purchased every foot of the territory covered by the Indian deed, and their heirs and assigns were therefore the sole proprietors of it. Grants and sales made subsequent to the original purchase, by the proprietors as a body, did not include an interest in the remaining undivided lands, but only affected the title to the particular lands thus alienated. This seems to us be the position taken by the "commoners," or "proprietors," at this time.

The "non-commoners," or "legal voters" in the town, on the other hand, seem to have taken the ground, that the territory having been originally granted to the inhabitants of the town generally, all the common or undivided lands remaining at any time, belonged to all who were legal inhabitants, or voters, at the time the town should please to dispose of them. It mattered not whether one had been an inhabitant, or legal voter, one day or fifty years; it was sufficient if he was entitled to vote in town affairs at the time the disposal of the undivided lands came up for consideration. If he was so entitled, he had an equal interest, or proprietorship, in such lands, with each and every other inhabitant of the town at the time.

These widely different and opposing conclusions, furnish a key to the long, and, at times, warm controversy, carried on concerning the undivided lands in the town.

The loss of the town's books, which we have before noticed, is doubtless to be accounted for by this controversy. When the books were finally recovered, it seems that they were in a mutilated state, and caused a great deal of trouble in the copying. At the annual meeting in 1721, it was voted "that there shall be a committee chosen to prefer a petition to the General Court for redress, in behalf of the damage that the town sustained by the town-books being part of them cut and torn out." That is, they desired to know how they could obtain redress for the injury done to the books.

GREELEY, continued

The previous data were taken from Savage; these consecutive dates were no doubt taken from vital records and should not be difficult to prove; I did not have time yesterday, reaching GREELEY shortly before the library closed. I do not doubt that this is the Greeley line.

Mary Singletary, w John, d. 8 March 1735 (Sutton VR p.462)

BROWN

Sarah, identified by Savage as "d. of HenryBrown."

? I started to check; found that Henry and his daughter had child(ren) named Abigail; son Henry Jr. had dau. named Hannah - like Sarah.

From Vital Records

"Henery Brown sometime of Salisbury leate of Salim" d. 25 April 1708 *
(Salis. VR 3:532)

Abigail Brown wid. d. 23 August 1702 (SalVR p.531.

(both from N CT BK)

There should be more data available on this family.

* If Sarah's mother Abigail died a widow in 1702, the 1708 death record must be for Henry Jr.? Work needed: probate etc.

What was your source for attributing Henry to George and Christian (   )?

Some of the material furnished here is based on research I did in 1981 for another client. He was wonderful to work for. He died some years ago, but he had already given me permission to publish what I'd found for him on one of his four Smith lines (all resolved satisfactorily, something I've always felt very pleased about!) and the article on "The Correct Ancestry of Ebenezer Smith 1741-ca 1791 and The Wives of Ezra (4) Smith" appeared in the June 1990 issue of the Connecticut Nutmegger, pp 68-77.

I also did an enormous amount of research for his wife, another darling. I do not think she would mind my citing some of the data although Charlie descended from other children of these people. I did not have time yesterday to get to the Lynn VRs, etc., but can do that. At least we have moved the Looke line back a generation to Thomas!

ZACCHEUS^{1} CURTICE/CURTIS

born in England; came from Townton, Co. Wiltshire, England (Banks' "Planters...." p.137) married Jane/Joan/Jone ( )

died

Came to America on the JAMES which sailed from Southampton 5 April and arrived here 5 June 1635 (Banks). The ship carried a good number of passengers, and cattle.

Zaccheus had a grant of land in Salem, MA in 1646 (Savage Vol.I).

At one time he lived in Gloucester, where his daughter Mary was born in 1659; he was not in the list of residents/proprietors by 1650 but was in the list before 1700.

8 June 1663 called of Topsfield

Resided in Topsfield/Rowley Village/ Boxford

Researching this family, I found Debrah Cortes, d Zacheus (Jr.) and Mary, b. 169- in Boxford (VR p.24) so one has to consider odd spellings.

Children, all registered in Topsfield:

i.	John^{3}	b. 11 Oct. 1673 "s John" (TVR p.31) m. 15 Apr. 1695 Priscilla Gould (TVR p.135)
ii.	Sarah^{3}	b. 17 Mar. 1675 !d John" (TVR p.31) m. 12 May 1696 Samuel Smith of Salem (TVR p.135)
iii.	Mary^{3}	b. 27 Dec. 1677 "d John" (TVR p.31)
iv.	Elizabeth^{3}	b. 15 Dec. 1679 "d John" (TVR p.31) m. 21 Jan. 1701/2 Zaccheus Gould (TVR p.135)
v.	Thomas^{3}	b. 2 Dec. 1681 "s John" (TVR p.31) m. 16 Oct. 1706 Phebe Gould (TVR p.135)
? + vi.	SAMUEL$^{3?}$	b. 31 May 1698 "s Corp. John & Mary" (TVR p.31).

We have a problem here. The 1981 data I have at hand lists what I presume must have been ALL of the children of John and Mary Looke. A span of births over 25 years - 1673-1698- is acceptable, and quite frequently happened, but in this case we have a gap of 17 years between the births of Thomas and Samuel. A lot hinges on the possible death of (1?) Priscilla Gould before John Jr. married (2?) Mary (?)? This needs work. If it were only one of the other children! But you list Samuel as next in your line so it has to be resolved.

SAMUEL CURTIS

born - record not clear. There is that Samuel born 31 May 1698 to "John & Mary" (TVR p.31) but there is a question about him; see page for John^2

Furthermore, if born 1698, he was at least 6 years younger than his wife, Hannah Dodge, baptized 17 April 1692, and perhaps born even earlier.

You have British data for William's father; we need to look into Henry Waters' "Gleanings..." for all these families for possible British Isles family data. Your charts are very helpful, but almost none have sources for the data and this lack should be rectified as far as possible. Too many errors are in print, and are even perpetuated through reprints, etc.

(Records for William muddy the waters re the data for his father; probate and deeds would help sort this out).

+iii. MARY^{2} b."1660" (M.O.S. datum; what is the source for this? I suspect she was born much earlier; after all, her parents were married in 1643, and her brother was married in 1667. I'd have to be persuaded through primary proof of some kind that she was born this late. (m. Edw. Dodge)

* Various death records make the one for Mary Tybbott unclear:

Mary Haskall, w Capt. William, d. 16 August 1693 (GVR 3:162)
Mary Haskell, widow, d. 12 Nov. 1715
Mary Haskell, wid., d. 24 Nov. 1723 a abt 58 y (b. ca 1665 so contemporary with William Jr. and perhaps with William^{3}

She was probably the daughter of (   ) Tybbot and (   ) Tybbit, wid., who married 22 2m 1652 John Harding (GVR p.556)

(Might be worthwhile to pursue these leads)

I also did work which enables us now to fill in - or prove - data on the chart you sent for the Haskells and the Dodges.

Enclosed are pages from Savage on Haskell. There are a zillion Haskells in the published Gloucester, MA records (or so it seemed to me!) Among them in GVR

"Vital Recprds to the End of the Year 1849 " pbld. 1924, 3 vols.

William Hascall m. Marie Tybb(ot) d Wa(l)ter, 6 Nov. 1643 (GVR 2:265)

William Haskell Sr. d 5 June 1708 (GVR 3:167)

This does not agree with your date for William, b.1619; m. 1643; d. 20 Aug. 1693 in Salem. Perhaps William Jr. was "Sr." by 1708, but this is confusing; probate may help.

I did look into the pbl.d Salem VR but that seemed not to be the place where these people were milling around.

I'm confident I can prove others thru the pbl.d VRs at CSL - where I found these yesterday - if you'd like me to do so. I had to give some of the time spent at CSL to other clients, as well. I have accepted no new clients since last summer, as I feel I want to devote as much time as possible to those for whom I've been working. Nicole will be with me next week for part of her spring vacation, and I won't be able to do anything more until I return her to NYC. So I am submitting a bill for March at this time. I look forward to your comments!

Isl. N. H. freem. 1669, d. a. 1678. John, Lyme, or New London, 1682, d. 1705, had only ch. John, and Eliz. Prob. he was first of Newbury, and a soldier in the gr. Narraganset fight, of Maj. Appleton's comp. 19 Dec. 1675, in wh. he was wound. but not disabled, if he be the same wh. took o. of fidel. at Amesbury 20 Dec. 1677. Joseph, from Earlscolne in Essex, d. on his passage, and spoke of br. John of Wethersfield in old Eng. for his nuncup. will is in Geneal. Reg. II. 181. Josiah, Fairfield, only s. of Edmund, m. a d. of Thomas Staples, d. early in 1698, leav. wid. Mary, four ch. Mary Jenners, Abigail Peat, Martha, unm. and Thomas. Matthias, Hempstead, L. I. had rem. there, I suppose, after m. a. 1655, Mary, wid. of Robert Cole. Peter, Salem 1692, shipbuilder, may have been f. of George, aged 46, and Henry, 43, impress. next yr. by a frigate, as they came home from a fishing voyage. Felt, Ann. II. 214. Richard, a tailor, came from London in the Planter, 1635, aged 22, with Ann, perhaps his w. 22, but it is not kn. what bec. of them. He may be the foll. Richard, Concord, had tw. ds. b. 25 and 26 Nov. 1639, soon d. as did the mo. Margaret in 7 days. He may have rem. to Stratford; by ano. w. had Eliz. b. 25 July 1644; Mary, 15 Sept. 1647; and Sarah, 13 Feb. 1650; was liv. Apr. 1659. Eliz. m. —— Hide; and Mary m. Thomas Jeffrys. Thomas, perhaps of Amesbury, m. 1643, Eliz. d. of James Wall of Hampton; and they were liv. 1663, and he, perhaps, 1683. Thomas, Taunton 1643. * Thomas, Amesbury, capt. freem. 1690, rep. 1691 and 2, bef. and after new chart. * William, Plymouth, m. 1639, Joanna, rem. to Taunton, was rep. 1664, and 13 yrs. after. William, Boston, by w. Joan had Abigail, b. 25 Apr. 1640; Thomas, 18 Dec. 1641; Experience, 4, bapt. 10 Mar. 1644; Joseph, 8, bapt. 14 Dec. 1645; and I presume the same man, by w. Martha had William, 27 Aug. 1651; Thomas, again, 16 Aug. 1652; and John, 5 Feb. 1655. He d. 15 Aug. 1658, and his wid. m. 10 Nov. 1659, Henry Tewksbury.

Harwood, or Harward, Edward, New Haven 1641. George, Boston, carpenter, by w. Jane had John, b. 4 July 1639; Joanna, 10 Dec. 1642; both bapt. 5 Mar. 1643; and Deliverance, who d. in Feb. 1641, prob. few days old; perhaps rem. to New London a. 1651. Of this name, also, was a disting. merch. of London, who was treasr. of our col. 1629 and never came over the water. Henry, Charlestown, came with w. Eliz. in the fleet, no doubt, with Winth. req. adm. 19 Oct. 1630, and was made freem. 4 Mar. 1633, had John, bapt. 3 June 1632, and in Oct. foll. was one of the found. of the ch. at Charlestown, being dism. from the Boston ch. with w. for that purpose. His life was shorten. by the extraord. suffering in a storm, ment. by Winth. I. 39, and I believe he d. as early as 1635. Henry, Salem 1638, freem. 28 Feb. 1643, d. a. 1664. Henry, Boston, shoemaker, by w. Eliz. had Eliz. b. 3 Apr. 1665; Henry, 23 Feb. 1667; Hannah, 17 Jan. 1669; Eliz. again, 17 May 1671; and Henry, again, 2 Jan. 1674; rem. to Casco 1675; had command of the forces there bef. 1683, then went back to Boston. Willis, I. 141, 181. James, Boston, of wh. I kn. no more but that his f. William, of Biddeford, in Devon, sent over, in 1655, to collect what was due to this s. so that it may seem he was then d. John, Boston 1645, freem. 1649, by w. Eliz. had Eliz. bapt. 17 Mar. 1650, a. 4 days old; Hezekiah, 27 Apr. 1653, d. next yr.; Hannah, 6 Mar. 1655. He was a merch. call. taylor on adm. of our ch. 25 Dec. 1647; perhaps s. of first treasr. sold his est. 1657, to br. Thomas Scottow, went home, and in 1677 was of London, but directing his s. John in import. operat. My suspicion is strong, that his name being sometimes spoken quick, became Harrod in some ears. John, Boston, s. prob. of the preced. by w. Hannah had John, b. 7 June 1677. John, New London, s. of George, bef. ment. had John, who d. 1726, without issue, and was the last of the name at that place. Nathaniel, Boston, by w. Eliz. had William, b. 28 Mar. 1665. Perhaps he rem. to Concord, and was freem. of 1690. Robert, Boston, baker, by w. Joanna had Thomas, b. 31 Jan. 1674. Thomas, Boston, m. 7 July 1654, wid. Rachel Woodward (whose former h. was Robert), d. of John Smith, the tailor, had Rachel, b. 20 June 1655, d. next yr.; Jeremiah, 4 June 1656; Ann, 26 Aug. 1657, d. 15 Aug. foll.; Rachel, again, 28 Feb. 1661; and Benjamin, 4 Feb. 1663.

Judith had William, again, 21 Dec. 1679; and Jacob, 28 Aug. 1684; was of ar. co. 1652; liv. at Rumney marsh, now Chelsea, and d. June 1695, leav. wid. Judith. I presume he was freem. 1665, spelt Hazzey. Others of the name were at Chelsea, and it has been wide spread. Three of the name are among gr. of H. C. bef. 1791.

Dear Marian,

Thankyou for your nice letter of April 17th - embarrassing that I received it four months ago and am just now answering.

I have the information you wanted on our son, Geoff's wife, Shawn - She was born July 11 1964 in Portland, Oregon. Harro, Lori's husband, was born February 20 1951 in Sobernheim, W. Germany (I guess the W. is no longer needed). I was born May 13, 1933 in Oakland, California -

You asked about my middle name - strictly a coincidence - My grandmother changed Haines to Haynes when she named my aunt because she liked the look of a y in the signature. Haines is a name that goes way back in our family -

We just said good by to Lori and her two little ones - The peace and quiet is definitely enjoyable but it was hard to say good by just when we were reaquainted. Lori was very pleased wit all the family information that you sent.

Best Regards
Pat,
